Alert as motorist targets women

POLICE are investigating a string of reports of a driver approaching young women around the Chase area.

Four women have complained about a motorist who has parked up at locations in Cannock, Hednesford, Heath Hayes and the Landwood area of Great Wyrley.

He asked one woman to get into the car but she refused and walked away. Police say the approaches may be linked.

Ch Insp Carl Ratcliffe said: "Staffordshire Police is currently investigating a number of reports concerning a suspicious vehicle. Four reports were received from young women.

Walking

"The reports refer to a man sitting in a car that was parked up at various locations.

"On one occasion the man asked a woman to get in the car. The woman did the right thing by not talking to him and walking off.

"If you're approached in a similar way, use your discretion and don't talk to strangers."

Cannock Chase Council has also received the reports, and says the driver has been spotted at around 7.45am or between 5-9pm.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

Teenage boy cancer fight

A CHARITY event in aid of a cancer-stricken Burntwood teenager raised nearly £3,000.

The Guys and Dolls night at Burntwood Rugby Club was held in aid of 14-year-old Jordan Laing, who is fighting brain and spinal cancer. Money raised goes towards his fight and to the Make A Wish Foundation.

Organisers thanked businesses, volunteers and performers as well as all those who donated raffle prizes and dug deep to swell the fundraising figure to £2,947.17

First show since theatre's revamp

RUGELEY'S theatre has been officially relaunched – and will take audiences to another world with its first production since a £52,000 revamp.

Sir Terry Pratchett's comedy Wyrd Sisters has been adapted for the stage by Stephen Briggs from the novel in the acclaimed Discworld series.

The show is being performed at the Rugeley Rose tomorrow (Friday) and again on Saturday at 7.30pm each night by Hednesford-based drama group Tower Players.

The action takes place in a remote mountain kingdom, with a plot that has echoes of Macbeth but with laughs.

It tells the story of an evil duke who assumes the throne after killing his cousin, and the attempts of three witches to return the dead king's son, and rightful heir, to the throne, even though he is still only a baby.

The Rugeley Rose Theatre and community hall has been refurbished over the past 12 months thanks to a £52,000 grant from the Coalfields Regeneration Trust.

Formed in 2006, Tower Players have presented a host of shows from serious drama and panto to self-penned musicals, comedy and farce and often work with a strong local theme such as mining and the military camps on the Chase. In Wyrd Sisters, the group will be joined by young actors from local theatre school TrEAD.

Tower Players meet every Thursday in term time at Staffordshire University Academy, Marston Road, Hednesford, between 7.30pm and 9pm.

Tickets are £7 for adults and £6 for concessions, including under 16s and pensioners.

Visit the box office, in Taylors Lane or call 01889 584306. Tickets are also available via email from towerplayers@live.com and the Tower Players' website at www.towerplayers.co.uk

Bankers mount a bid to hit heights

MEMBERS of staff at a bank in Cannock are preparing to climb Mount Kilimanjaro.

Angela Robertson, Mark Rees, Gavin Davies and Charlotte Bate will take on the challenge in October next year along with 176 employees from Barclays banks across the UK.

The four colleagues are aiming to raise £18,000 for The Christie NHS Hospital in Manchester which specialises in vital cancer research and treats more than 40,000 patients a year.

Mrs Robertson, said: "We need everyone's help and support as we have £18,000 to raise between the four of us at Cannock Branch for such a worthwhile and important cause.

Iconic

"This is an amazing trip for all of us and is going to make such a difference to so many people. This will probably be the greatest thing that we ever do in our lives and that is to help save a life by climbing this iconic mountain."

A fundraising race night will take place at Bar Sport in High Green tomorrow night (Friday) to get the group on the way to reaching their target.

Tickets cost £7.50 and include food and free entry into the VIP lounge. For tickets or more information telephone 07974413388.

McDonald's opens doors

RUGELEY'S new McDonald's restaurant was set to open yesterday (Wednesday). The fast food chain was opening in Power Station Road, bringing with it 90 jobs. An apprenticeship scheme is also in place.

For manager and franchisee Doug Wright, it is his seventh restaurant having opened up his first in Lichfield 12 years ago.

Mr Wright, aged 47, said the 110-seat £1.5m Rugeley franchise, close to the Amazon distribution centre, would also complement the arrival of Tesco.

BISTRO PLAN AT EX-LEGION CLUB

by Alex Ross

The name really is James Bond

HIS name is Bond . . . James Bond. And he lives in Rugeley. The 58-year-old engineer looks back over a varied and interesting life as the film franchise celebrates its 50th year and the release of Skyfall. Turn to page 2.

THE former home of Cannock's Royal British Legion Club could be turned into a bar and bistro.

Pub firm Matco Holdings wants to open the drinks premises in the ground floor of the closed Royal British Legion Cannock branch in Stafford Road.

The company, which owns The Duck in Chadsmoor and The Lamb and Flag in Wimblebury, has submitted a planning application to Cannock Chase District Council.

The building was closed by the legion in July 2010, a year before the branch itself folded due to falling membership. It has since been targeted by metal thieves.

John Freeman, acting agent for Matco Holding, said: "The bistro would sell coffee, food and wine. I think the town could do with something like this, the site is near the bus station and there is nothing like this nearby.

Apartments

"The company has done its homework and found potential for the planned bistro."

The bistro would take the ground floor of the derelict building, while two residential apartments would be built on the first floor.

In a supporting document with the planning application, the firm says a bistro could not support upkeep of the building on its own. It adds there is a high demand from couples and single people for small apartments in the town.

Mr Freeman said: "This is an opportunity to reopen a building which has been closed for two years and has suffered vandalism and decay."

Matco Holding purchased the building

Cannock's Royal British Legion Club

from the Royal British Legion for around £125,000 earlier this year. Under plans to convert it, a front porch would be added on the building as well as a rear smoking area.

If approved by the council, work could start as early as next year and opening next summer.

Following the closure of the Cannock legion branch, former branch member Sheila Dunning, from Cannock Traders' Association, organises the town's annual Remembrance Sunday ceremony.

Jackie Murphy, Chase Eyecare practice manager at its Cannock branch, said: "It was a fantastic day. We had lots of people pop in and buy raffle tickets, have a go on the tombola and buy cakes. In total we raised £372 which we are absolutely delighted with.

"I want to say a big thank you to everyone who made cakes and donated prizes, especially the generous donations from businesses."

Engineer has a licence to thrill as James Bond

A RUGELEY man born with the name James Bond has found that this lucky twist of fate has led him into and out of a number of sticky situations.

The 58-year-old Ministry of Defence employee from Billberry Close, was not named after the character but as part of family tradition, he said.

"I had always been known as Jim as a kid until the film came out and from then on everyone started calling me James, the name has made me a lot of friends."

James said on his first day at work he went to clock in with his time card and had been given the number 007 but says that was purely by chance.

While working for the MoD, James had the chance to meet Princess Margaret just because of his name.

Bond has been portrayed by a number of different actors over the years.

James said: "My favourites are either Sean Connery or Pierce Brosnan though if I had to compare myself I think I am most like Pierce."

As a singer, wife Jayne Bond has even worked her famous connection into her routine booming out the likes of Diamonds Are Forever and Goldfinger among other hits.

She said: "When I first met him and he said he was James Bond I thought it was a joke or some kind of chat up line but I soon realised it wasn't."

The name hasn't always been such a blessing. On one occasion James was pulled over by the police and a sceptical officer held him for nearly an hour while his identity was confirmed.

In another incident Jayne and James were held by armed guards on an airport bus in the former Yugoslavia while checks were made on their passports, holding them and other passengers up as they tried to make a connecting flight to Italy.

Among his most memorable moments were being a part of the United team which thrashed a Barcelona side featuring a young Maradona in the third round of the Cup Winners Cup at Old Trafford.

Whiteside admitted afterwards that he suffers from nerves before public speaking but delivered an entertaining insight into life as a Man Utd star in the 1980s.

Whiteside's insight into life as Red Devils star

MANCHESTER United legend Norman Whiteside was special guest at a top Cannock venue, entertaining fans at a sportsman's dinner.

As guests tucked into a three-course meal at the Barns in Huntington, Whiteside spoke about his blooming career before a knee injury ended his career prematurely at just 26.

Whiteside still holds the record as being the youngest player to play in the World Cup finals as he starred for Northern Ireland in 1982 at just 17 years 41 days. He is the youngest player to score in both a League Cup and FA Cup final and the youngest player to score a senior goal for the Red Devils.

Fencing is back in place at play area

METAL fencing that was stolen from a play area in Cannock has been reinstalled.

Some 45 metres of fencing was unbolted and stolen from the Matlock Drive play area, a theft discovered by Cannock Chase Council workers on the morning of Tuesday September 25. Arrests were later made when council workers saw two men cutting the fencing into shorter sections behind a van parked between two blocks of flats.

The van and its contents were taken to a secure pound near Tamworth as evidence and police recently gave the council permission to collect the stolen fencing.

Panels

Only seven panels had been cut up and workers have been able to weld these panels back together again. The fencing was reinstalled on Tuesday, October 9 and the play area is once again fully fenced and safe for children to use.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport leader said to collect, repair and reinstate the fencing had cost the taxpayer more than £700.

Chairman to launch new pub

THE chairman of Cannock Chase Council is to formally launch a new pub in the town next week.

The Academy in High Green closed down last weekend and will reopen after a £140,000 investment as The Courtyard, operated by the Bramwell pub Company.

It will be officially reopened by Cannock Chase Council chairman Bob Todd at 5pm on October 25.

To celebrate its opening, manager Steve Banks and his team are hosting a VIP party from 5-9pm so that the people of Cannock can visit the pub and raise a glass to toast the pub's new look.

Along with a new name and its transformation both inside and out, The Courtyard will create at least 10 jobs in the kitchen and bar areas.

A new all-weather beer garden is being introduced, with pagodas, allowing the beer garden to be used 365 days a year. A new food and fresh cocktail menu will be launched and the number of its real ales will double to four.

Mr Banks said: "It's all change here and the team and I are delighted. We will be striving to create a pub to be proud of."

New female RBL section

A WOMEN'S section of the Royal British Legion is being formed in Burntwood and its chairman is appealing for more recruits.

Chaired by Sharon Banevicius, the women's section is being launched at an autumn fair next Saturday, October 27, from 2-4pm at the scout hut, in Ironstone Road.

The fair will feature craft stalls, nail art, fancy goods, bric-a-brac a tombola and a raffle with refreshments also be on sale.

To join the new branch, call Sharon on 01543 270761.

Shop will close

A CHARITY shop in Heath Hayes will close at the weekend after more than ten years. International Aid Trust, Hednesford Road, will shut on Saturday to allow the neighbouring dental surgery to expand. Area co-ordinator Alison Cardy said: "We would like to thank everyone, who has supported us. We are actively searching new premises."

Makeover makes a difference at youth club

SSHA staff give Littleton Green Youth Centre a makeover

A YOUTH centre used by more than 120 young people in Huntington has been given a makeover as part of a new scheme to help local community projects.

Littleton Green Youth Club, on Stafford Road, is the first to benefit from South Staffordshire Housing Association's Make A Difference Days initiative.

Volunteers from Property Care, the housing association's labour arm, repainted and redecorated the centre with help from its young members, who also chose the colours. County councillor Mike Lawrence, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "This makeover will certainly make a difference to the centre, and will hopefully encourage more young people to use it."

"It's key that young people have been instrumental in choosing the colours used, as it gives them a real sense of ownership and pride in their youth centre. I want to thank all of the volunteers for putting their time and effort." Stephen Collins, director of property services at Property Care, said: "We are delighted to have been able to work on such a beneficial project. It is a real investment into the community."

The MAD Days project will see more than 55 staff and board members from the Housing Plus Group donate their time to nominated community projects from across the district.

It has been launched to celebrate the housing association's 15th year in business.

Cash incentive for traders to let public spend a penny

SHOPKEEPERS across Cannock Chase could earn an extra £100 a month by allowing customers to use their toilets.

Traders in Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley are being offered an annual bonus of up to £1,200 by the district council if they let the public use their loos.

Council bosses revealed earlier this year that they were considering an incentive scheme due to a toilet shortage in the three towns. Terms have now been agreed.

Businesses that provide the best facilities will be rewarded with the highest payouts, with a total cash pot of £10,000 set aside this financial year.

Elderly

Bosses say the alternative solution would be to build new public toilet blocks, sending costs spiralling.

Announcing the initiative, town centre regeneration leader Councillor Diane Todd said: "The council wants to improve public access to toilets for the whole community."

"We particularly have in mind elderly residents or those with health needs. Better access to public toilets will improve their independence and we hope that a wide range of businesses and organisations across the district will sign up."

A ground-floor shop which offers changing facilities, as well as disabled access toilets for men and women, will qualify for the full payment of £1,200 under the pilot scheme.

Disabled access toilets on the ground floor, without changing facilities, are worth £700 a year.

Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "We will certainly be applying to join the scheme."

"It will be good for the community as a whole, although obviously traders will have to consider the logistics and health and safety implications."

No fees will be allowed.

Handball club is expanding after post-Games demand

A HANDBALL club has seen such a surge in membership since the Olympics it has been forced to expand. The success of the sport at London 2012 has had a massive impact on senior and junior sections of Olympia Cannock Handball Club, based at Cardinal Griffin RC High School.

The club now holds training sessions at Kingsmead Technology College in Hednesford and Chase Leisure Centre, Cannock, to cater for demand. A possible fourth venue, at Norton Canes, is also on the cards.

Training nights have been set up for under 14s and 18s and ex-players have also set up an adults' social session. Handball takes place at Chase Leisure Centre on Wednesdays from 7pm. Call Nenad Popovic on 07806 602606.

Sisters act with help for hospice

TWO sisters from Cannock have raised £5,000 for a hospice which cared for their late mother.

Maureen Wood died of brain cancer at the age of 57 last November - just eight weeks after being diagnosed.

Her daughters Charlotte Wood, aged 20, and Nicole Fletcher, 36, wanted to raise cash for St Giles Hospice after staff there cared for her.

Together with their 63-year-old father John Wood, they planned a Party in the Paddock event last month.

Family

Bands played at a venue in Bednall, drawing in a crowd of more than 200 people.

Administrator Charlotte, of Gorsey Lane, said the family was now planning more fundraising events in aid of the hospice.

She said: "We are thinking of making it a twice-a-year event."

"We wanted to raise money for St Giles Hospice because the staff made my mother very comfortable."

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

JUST remember, as food prices start rising and manufacturers blame it all on poor grain harvests around the world, that raw materials make up only a small part of the price of modern foods. In a simple loaf, the flour accounts for only 10 per cent of the total price. In highly processed foods the proportion is even less. So a 30 per cent hike in grain prices should not cause huge price rises in the supermarkets – but profiteering in the board rooms most certainly will.

TWO weeks ago The Food Hospital (C4) sang the praises of watercress. The next day our local and usually well-stocked market, was sold out of watercress in a couple of hours. Remember the Delia effect? More than 10 years ago Delia Smith's TV tips resulted in soaring sales of cranberries and capers. And when she described her favourite metal pan as "a little gem," the firm making them, which had been selling only 200 a year, turned out 90,000 in the next four months. Now, The Food Hospital claims blueberries could improve our brain power. Has the panic-buying of blueberries begun?

THE Food Hospital also introduced us to a morbidly obese bloke who had made a special effort to keep his alcohol intake down at a wedding. He had limited himself to 12 pints of Guinness and eight cans of lager and seemed very satisfied. No blueberries there, then.

SOMETIMES we say what we think, not what's on the script. That seasoned broadcaster Jim Naughtie referred carelessly this week to the "headache" on Jimmy Savile's grave. Er, headache.

MEANWHILE, what a revelation Savile's 1978 autobiography is turning out to be. This is the book that should have been Exhibit A for the prosecution. Relating the tale of one young girl who threw herself at him, Savile says: "Should the reader feel that her folks appear unconcerned, you would not believe the stories I might tell you about some parents." It seems the DJ was referring to parents who don't give a damn what their kids are doing so long as there is a chance, however remote, of fame and fortune. So what's new? There is a long and shameful showbiz tradition of ambitious mothers delivering their daughters to the producer's casting couch. It may suit police, BBC bosses and Savile's colleagues to claim that the DJ's behaviour was hidden by a conspiracy of silence. The truth is that it was there, in black and white, for anyone to read.

BACK in August as the first wave of Boris fever swept the nation, I wrote: "At various stages in his life and career, Boris Johnson has shown himself to have feet of clay." I am not alone in doubting the London Mayor's fitness for high office. In the Daily Mail a couple of days ago his former boss Max Hastings who knows him well denounced him as "a gold-medal egomaniac" who is "utterly unfit to go higher still."

No-one denies that Boris can be a charmer, a crowd-pleaser and a great entertainer. But so was George Formby. And when the chips were down in 1940 we were lucky to have Winston Churchill as prime minister and George Formby entertaining the masses, and not the other way around.

AT a time when funeral prices are soaring, I couldn't feel much sympathy for the reader who wrote to tell me the cremation and delivery of the late Colin's ashes set his family back a total of £95. Then I read on. Turns out Colin was a rabbit and the bill came from the vet.

Fire spreads from caravan to home

ALMOST 30 firefighters helped to tackle a blaze in Norton Canes. Crews were called to Norton East Road at 3.27pm last Friday.

The fire spread from a caravan to a house. An investigation revealed it was started accidentally.

It destroyed a caravan at the rear of the property before spreading to the conservatory of the semi-detached home. Fire Service spokesman Tim Hyde said it spread into the roof space.

He said crews forced entry into the property as the residents were not home, but later chose to tackle the blaze from outside because of the "unsafe" roof structure.

Mr Hyde said: "The roof is extensively damaged. All the rooms on all floors and the loft will have fire, smoke or water damage. There is a small amount of smoke and water damage to the adjoining property."

Neighbour, Bob Reddall, aged 57, said: "There was really thick, black smoke and I heard an explosion".

John Lote, 64, who, was visiting relatives, said: "We were sitting in the kitchen when we heard explosions."

Amazon stock stolen by warehouse worker

A FACTORY worker who stole thousands of pounds of stock from an internet shopping warehouse in Rugeley has been spared an immediate jail sentence.

Peter Cervienka was working at the huge Amazon depot in Power Station Road when he decided to steal electrical items and re-sell them online. The goods stolen by the 32-year-old were valued at £5,036.

by Claire Fry

Cannock Magistrates Court heard how Cervienka was sprung by an Amazon theft reduction officer who noticed various items, including computer components, mobile phones and memory sticks, had gone missing from boxes.

Mr Ian Pinkney, prosecuting, said: "The officer went on to eBay and searched for any of the items for sale."

"A seller was selling three items that were new but unboxed and so he purchased one and the receipt led to Mr Cervienka."

Hidden

Police were called and they found the stock in his house.

When he was questioned, Cervienka initially said he had found the items before admitting that he had taken them and then hidden them under his belt buckle to avoid the metal detectors.

The Slovakian, who has been in the country since 2006, said he had done it as he had been in debt.

Cervienka, of Heath Street, Hednesford, admitted a charge of theft by employee between June and July this year.

In mitigation, Mr Ian Hodnett said while there had been an element of breach of trust, he was not a manager or company secretary, and just worked in the factory.

Mr Hodnett added it had started with finding the items and taking some home by mistake, but then he didn't think anyone would believe him.

"The route of the problem is the debt he was in," he added, saying he had a wife and two children to support.

Cervienka was given a suspended sentence for 12 months with 12 months supervision, and ordered to pay court costs of £85.

Chairman of the magistrates Patricia Mellor said an employer should be able to trust all their staff, regardless of their position.

She also warned Cervienka that his crime crossed the custody threshold, and as it had taken place over a number of weeks, it had been planned.

Salon's in the pink for charity

Junior stylist Evie Marshall from Cutting It with some of the cakes being sold

STAFF at a Cannock hair salon have been in the pink in their bid to raise money for Breast Cancer Care.

Cutting It, in Queen Square, had a fundraising day selling cakes. Manager Michelle Workman, aged 30, said they were also donating 10 per cent of their weekend's profits to the charity.

She said: "We are trying to raise awareness as much as anything, but 10 per cent of our profits from here, and the salon in Walsall Wood, will go to the charity."

"We have already raised about £120 but we want to make a lot more. Quite a few of our customers have suffered with it so we want to raise as much awareness as possible."

"It's not something people should shy away from, people need to be aware."

Children's keep-fit sessions launched

A LADIES only gym in Cannock will open its doors to youngsters next month.

Gym 'I'll Fix It 4 U' at Avon Business and Leisure Centre, Avon Road, will welcome 10-16 year-olds on Saturday 3 and Sunday 4 November for two days of exercise.

Fitness instructors will be on hand to give youngsters – boys and girls – advice on keeping fit while they take part in a 30-minute circuit workout exercising on the gym's machines.

Interest

Owner Julie Southall, said: "We are a ladies only gym but we've had so much interest from boys as well as girls we decided to hold sessions for both."

"There are no gyms in the area that are willing to take on kids and there's nothing for them around here so we decided to give them a try."

"We are doing a trial run for one month at the weekends and if the sessions are successful, we will carry on with them."

Sessions begin at noon and cost £5.

For more information telephone 01543 467057.

Love Your Street is pilot aim

A PILOT scheme created by Cannock Chase Council and its partners is asking residents of Bretonton to 'Love their Street'.

The initiative wants the public to get more involved with their community and take pride in their neighbourhood. It also aims to reduce crime and create a safer, more pleasant environment.

The first five streets chosen for this month's week of action, planned for the October half-term, are Springhill Terrace, Kelly Avenue, Newman Grove, Ravenhill Terrace and Couthwaite Way.

Ideas

The scheme will include environmental clean-ups, fire safety checks and children's activities culminating in the 'Celebrate Your Street' event.

The council, together with the Chase Community Partnership, is keen to hear residents' ideas.

Councillor Mike Holder, crime and partnerships leader, said: "Our communities are safer places to live and work with our partners we want to communicate this to local people through the Love Your Street initiative."

Changes to allocations

CANNOCK Chase Council is reviewing how its 5,500 housing properties are allocated and how nominations to housing associations are made.

The authority is consulting on a revised allocations policy and has asked housing applicants and tenants for their views, as well as other organisations like Staffordshire County Council, the CAB and housing associations throughout the district.

The consultation runs until December 21. Results will be reported to the council's Cabinet.

Feel the rhythm

JUNIOR drumming workshops are being reintroduced at South Staffordshire leisure centres this half-term. They are being held as part of Cheslyn Hay and Penkridge's Halloween themed activity programme, which also includes arts and crafts, circus skills and a visit from the Animal Man. Call either 01922 417790 or 01785 714152.

Backing for opposition to wind turbines

PROPOSALS to oppose all major wind turbine schemes across Staffordshire have been overwhelmingly backed by members of the county council.

Members voted in favour of turning down all large-scale turbine plans by a landslide margin of 31 to two.

Under the terms of a motion put forward by environment boss Mark Winnington, any single turbine reaching a height of more than 164ft will be resisted.

Any development of more than 10 turbines at a single site will be opposed regardless of their height. And chiefs will also be able to reject applications against two to nine turbines of 100ft or higher to protect areas of natural beauty such as Cannock Chase.

Mr Winnington told last Thursday's full council meeting the structures were an eyesore which residents felt very strongly about.

The motion agreed by councillors states: "The county council is very concerned that large-scale wind energy proposals would result in the industrialisation and urbanisation of our rural county, renowned for the quality of our landscapes and our national environment, and reduce the visual attractiveness of our county for residents and visitors alike."

Councillor Pat Corfield told the meeting the subject was "very controversial" while Councillor Frank Chapman claimed the wind turbines were not effective.

Incentives

He said private landowners benefited from "massive cash incentives" to place them on their land.

However Councillor Christina Jebb said passing Councillor Winnington's motion would place added pressure on the council to use other renewable energy sources.

"People do say they would prefer a wind turbine to a waste tip," she said.

Councillor Mark Heenan, leader of Stafford Borough Council, said he was not against the wind turbines and in time, communities would not be "bothered by the sight of them".

Other councillors said solar and tidal power should be harnessed instead. They also expressed concern that in bad weather turbines had to be shut down and were not effective.

Park yob is found guilty of 'snitch' taunts at councillor

A DISTRICT councillor who tried to rid her local park of gangs of yobs ended up being a target of their taunts, during a frightening ordeal, a court heard.

Harry Batista-Crespo harassed Councillor Maureen Freeman outside her home in Cannock and in the nearby park, calling her "an informer" and "a snitch".

Maureen Freeman

On one occasion, when 68-year-old Miss Freeman had gone to the park with a fellow female councillor to identify trouble hotspots, they were left paralysed with fear by a group of up to 15 youths, including Batista-Crespo.

One of the mob cycled at speed towards the pair and circled them on his bike, stopping them in their tracks, Cannock magistrates heard.

Miss Freeman, a former police officer, said: "I simply froze. So did my colleague. I couldn't even use my mobile I was so frightened."

Apartment

She said Batista-Crespo belittled the words "snitch" and "grasser" at her in a mocking manner. The women left the park and immediately contacted the police.

Ten days earlier, on July 15, the teenager had come face-to-face with her outside her apartment, which overlooks the park, and told his companion in a loud voice: "There's the informer."

The 19-year-old, of Attingham Drive, Heath Hayes, was banned from Cannock Park in August. In his defence, Rob Perry said he had turned over a new leaf and was now working as an apprentice.

He was found guilty of harassment at trial and given a 12-month restraining order, banning him from contacting Councillor Freeman, and ordered to pay £820 in costs and fines.

Pupils urged to set themselves a target

Paralympian gold medal archer Danielle Brown with pupils, Lucy Ankers, aged nine, and Matthew Gosling, 10

A DOUBLE gold-medal winning archer helped pupils at a Cannock school hone in on targets for their futures.

Paralympian Danielle Brown added gold at London this summer to her medal at Beijing four years ago.

The 24-year-old visited Moorhill Primary School in Cannock and addressed a special assembly of more than 300 youngsters.

Yorkshire-born Danielle, who suffers from reflex sympathetic dystrophy in her feet, then toured classrooms to speak to children on an individual basis. She spent the morning at the Moorland Road school and she shared her story and experiences.

School staff described the athlete as an inspirational visitor and said she had made a real impression on the children.

Inspirational

Headteacher Sandra Pack, who has been at Moorhill for 12 years, said: "She told the children her story of how she came to start archery nine years ago, because of her disability."

"The story was one of determination to be the best she could be. It was an inspirational talk and the children really took her to their hearts. Her message was to know what you want to do and then to find out what you need to do to get there."

"Also, she advised the children to have a back-up plan as she had to change disciplines."

Sporting her Team GB tracksuit, Danielle also brought along her gold medal from the London 2012 Paralympics to show pupils. She took up archery around nine years ago.

At the time of the Beijing Paralympics she was a law student at the University of Leicester and came away with a first class degree.

Mining memorial planned for town

A mining official made of wood

An impression of a rescue miner

Cut out of a Lea Hall mineworker

THESE are the four images of a memorial set to be created in Rugeley to honour the men who once worked in the biggest colliery in Europe.

Four miners will be represented in the tableau at Rugeley, which boasted the rich seams of Lea Hall and Brereton collieries.

A location for the £70,000 memorial has now been put out for public consultation at the request of Cannock Chase District Council which is providing the bulk of the cash.

The Globe island on the A460 is the organising committee's preferred site and wooden cutouts of the proposed statues were erected there last week.

Heritage

However, Stag's Leap island, Brereton Hill island, Brook Square and the Colliers' island have also been put forward as possible sites.

Rugeley is the only one of the three main Cannock Chase towns not to have a commemorative statue to its mining heritage.

The sculpture will show four pitmen, each facing one of four converging roads. However the statues will no longer stand on a shared circular plinth as the combined 18 ton weight risked damaging power cables below any roundabout it is put on. Instead they will stand as individual pieces.

So far more than 400 people have taken part in the consultation, which ends on Saturday (October 20).

For phase two, The Lea Hall and Brereton Collieries Memorial Society plans to erect a wall engraved with the names of town mineworkers.

Chairman Brian Batey said: "There are people with different views on where the memorial should go which is why the discussion has been opened up."

Vice-chairman Brian Garner said: "For 40 years, these miners put money into this town and 98 per cent of people feel they deserve to be commemorated."

Landmarks on heritage body's 'At Risk' register

Family's toy shop gamble

Mark and Katie Burton with daughter Danielle at their toy shop

A HUSBAND and wife team from Hednesford have quit their jobs to take on the brave step of opening a new toy shop.

Mark and Katie Burton, both 41, threw open the doors of Small Imaginations at Norton Canes Business Park last weekend.

Their daughter Danielle, aged 20, will join them part-time.

Mr Burton said: "I used to be a plumber and Katie was a PA at Walsall Council. We thought there's not anything else like this in the area. We had been selling through the internet.

"This way we can still work online and offer people face-to-face service.

"We have a wide range of goods, from adult games, like jigsaws, to preschool toys, Peppa Pig stuff and Thomas the Tank Engine."

AROUND 60 landmarks across the West Midlands are at risk of being lost, according to English Heritage.

Among them are conservation areas like Talbot Street in Rugeley, as well as the town centre. Lichfield Street in the town and the historic Grade II* listed Colton House are also on the register.

The preservation group has published its annual At Risk register – first released in 1998 – of 6,000 buildings and historic sites across the country. This includes nationwide heritage sites with the highest levels of protection, Grade I and II* listing.

Those with the lower Grade II listing have only been included in London.

The body also announced a programme to assess England's 345,000 Grade II listed buildings, funding between nine and 15 pilot surveys with local authorities and other groups to find out which such structures are at risk. On average buildings are £370,000 short of what they need to bring them up standard.

Financed

Rugeley town councillor Tim Jones said: "It doesn't surprise me that English Heritage has concerns about the town centre.

"We need investment in street furniture, things like that which attract people to a town centre. It's most certainly welcome that English Heritage have highlighted the fact there is a problem."

English Heritage's director of heritage protection Dr Edward Impey said that in the current climate, efforts to save buildings may have to focus on "holding" measures.

Foundry hits on a solution to smells

I SHOULD like to comment on the sensationalist reports of the current situation at Norton Aluminium.

In the early 1900s a coal mine in Norton Canes provided employment for the locals. After it shut, Norton Aluminium was built on the site and employs 63 people. We were here first and housing grew around us.

Complaints were received from 2003 about the smell from our sand foundry. We tried many things to improve the situation and finally hit on a comprehensive solution in 2006. Since then, we have worked closely with the Environment Agency and Cannock Council to ensure we adhere to their stringent environmental requirements.

The court case has been a source of stress for all and many have been worried about losing jobs at a time of high unemployment.

Caring and competent local politician

I MUST protest at the letter by Councillor Woodward (Chronicle, October 4). This is a dreadful slight on a caring, competent and helpful local politician.

With regard to Greenwood House Care Home, Burntwood, this Labour councillor is obviously more concerned about sniping and publicity and has forgotten all the years that Greenwood House stood empty and unused. Only now we have some great news does she bother to comment. I don't remember any protests during that time and as I understand it, it was she who closed it down. Now because someone else has done something about it, she wants to say they are playing politics.

We have had many dealings with County Councillor Matthew Ellis in his current role because we are involved in helping stroke victims and every time he has promised to do something it has been done. As volunteers within the older and disabled sector, we can assure you there are big improvements in the social care services over recent years.

Not everything is perfect but under Councillor Ellis's guidance things have become a lot better, and he has given South Staffordshire a good foundation to work from.

Councillor Woodward needs to realise this sort of negative sniping turns people off. We want the best for Burntwood and beyond and Councillor Ellis and his team are bringing that more so than before.

Marking Waterloo's 200th anniversary

WITH the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo due to be celebrated in June 2015, Rugeley Lions had the idea of putting on a celebration to commemorate the part played by the Earl of Uxbridge commander of the allied cavalry.

As second in command to the Duke of Wellington he became a great national hero. Lord Uxbridge, was of course, a local man whose home was at Beaudesert.

Recently a new Lions branch was formed in Hednesford and they have agreed to take up the challenge of running this event. The outline of the plan is that the whole community will have something to celebrate.

It is anticipated that schools, local businesses, churches and voluntary groups will take part and there will be something for everyone to enjoy. This is an opportunity not to be missed and we would welcome input and comments from other local groups who might like to take part. ## Village in time warp

AS A Penkridge resident for the past 40 years and living close to the Lyne Hill development, I am disappointed that Penkridge is stuck in a time warp and unable to move on. I never received any notification of meetings and a new supermarket and petrol station would be a great benefit to the community. This would have been the best thing for this run-down village. To say they would not be in-keeping with the character of the village is a joke.

Housing for needs of district

THE Tory leader on Cannock Chase Council seems keen for Hednesford to bear the brunt of any new homes in Cannock Chase. Surely all parts of our district should take their fair share?

I believe any new housing should meet local needs and be affordable. What Councillor Snape forgets is that the Conservatives and their Lib Dem accomplices wanted to build only luxury houses on the stadium site. How is this meeting local needs?

He then complains about the lack of local sporting facilities and about the length of time it may take to provide these much needed facilities. It was the Tories & Lib Dems who demolished the stadium and it is Labour that is seeking to turn the stadium site into a sporting and recreational hub for all of our community.

How much quicker could we this have been achieved if Councillor Snape's party hadn't demolished the stadium in the first place?

Why not go back to having no wardens?

CANNOCK taxpayers are losing money on parking charges imposed by the council and Councillor Janos Toth suggests "all partners will need to look at how this can be addressed". Perhaps the 36 per cent fall in fine revenue is due to taxpayers avoiding towns and using supermarkets where they are not oppressed by so-called public servants?

Watching wardens tour Hednesford at eight each morning and then again at 8.25 to issue a £70 ticket, despite the town being empty is something our councillors should bear in mind when they try and give us so called "best value". There is an alternative of course, go back to the time when we lived without wardens.

Try paying parking fine on a pension

I READ about the Cannock Chase district parking service being in dire need of some more of its community charge payers to break the law to enable for it to exist.

Surely this means it has been successful as its purpose is to deter motorists from parking where and when they shouldn't. If it is making a loss, it must do as other departments do which cut or cease or just advertise for more of us to park where we shouldn't just to help them out.

Councillor Janos Toth says it is causing a headache striving to "provide best value for money". Here's a headache. Try paying a parking fine when you are shopping on a pension, or are a young mum in a hurry, or a single mum.

Car parts firm fighting back with expansion bid

Families shown around

Welder Neil Kerr showing Frances Tams and Samantha Kerr a welded car part at the anniversary open day at Tallent Automotive in Cannock

HUNDREDS of employees and their families turned out for a special open day to celebrate Tallent Automotive's 125th anniversary.

The car parts manufacturer opened the doors of its base, in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock, on Saturday. Around 470 people came along, with employees showing their families what they do on a daily basis. Loader Chris Davies, aged 60, of Great Wyrley, who has worked for the firm for 15 years, brought his 14-year-old son, Ross, along to show around.

He said: "I feel proud to work for them. My son was quite interested in it all."

A CAR parts manufacturer has bounced back from the recession and has announced £4m plans to expand and create 40 jobs.

Tallent Automotive, which supplies car makers including BMW, Nissan and Honda, is planning to build a new 60,000sq ft factory at its base in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock.

Around 250 workers have been taken on in the last 18 months and existing facilities have reached capacity.

The number of staff at Cannock was slashed from 950 to 700 in 2009 as orders dropped off in the economic downturn. But the payroll has now been restored to former levels. Tallent, which makes chassis, suspension and body parts, made 1,000 of its 3,500 staff across the country redundant in 2008/9 but has now recovered all the posts which were lost.

Capacity

More jobs are expected to become available in the next 18 months while the new factory could open as early as 2014.

Managing director Brian Francis said: "The Cannock site is just about full to capacity so we will be building another factory there."

"We are still waiting for confirmation from customers for the business which will see that built but we believe it is going to happen over the next couple of years. We will also be recruiting people towards the middle to end of next year."

Advice on dementia

DEMENTIA sufferers in Cannock are to benefit from a new service. The Royal British Legion's Admiral Nurse Service is assessing the needs of anyone in the armed forces community with the condition and is offering advice to their family and carers. Call 08457 725725 for more details.

MEMORY LANE

Bridgtown Albion FC, which was based at the Dog pub, in North Street

Marcia Ball has a whole chapter dedicated to herself

One of the many Taylor's Bakeries, this one in North Street, dating back to 1886

Alice and Fred Moss of 8, Broad Street are a typical example of Bridgtown families of that time

Stories of villagers born and bred in Bridgtown

A RECENTLY released book by the Bridgtown & District History Society looks back into the history of the main streets that make up the village.

Author David Williams and his team of 18 researchers spent around seven months researching stories, speaking to local people and trawling through files found in lofts.

The latest book from the fledgling society concentrates on the people that live in the streets and the stories that make up the village's diverse history.

For each chapter, stories revolve around a particular street, the first one being is North Street, the main shopping parade in Bridgtown.

Among the many stories is that of

by Tom Mason

the pub known to all as the 'The Dog' which still stands today as The Castle and its original licensees the Hargreaves.

The book also contains a few humorous tales including that of the anonymous matriarch of a Church Street family who would sit with the door of the toilet open as people passed by in hopes that one would stop for a chat.

Apparently people would often stop and chat to the women as she went about her business and is something that many residents remember.

The team mainly received their pictures from current residents as is the case with Marcia Ball who carried out so much research into her past that the book dedicates an entire chapter to her.

Mrs Ball, formerly Perks, was born at 7, Broad Street in 1939 and moved to a larger house in the same street in 1943. From 1942 until she married in 1962, she catalogued all her memories of living in the street.

She and her husband later moved to Tamworth and her parents moved out of Broad Street in 1966.

Collection

Mr Williams, a former headmaster at Bridgtown Primary School, said her collection of memories were so extensive they could have been a book in themselves.

The book is mainly a collection of family stories that are reflected in 104 black and white photographs spread over the book's 68 pages.

The book is available for £5 by request from the society via its website www.bridgtownhistory.co.uk

Marcia Ball's mother Ada Perks, and Edie Davenport, who lived next door to them at 42, Broad Street

Members enjoy visit to Althorp

Flag flying high at remembrance site

CANNOCK TOWNSWOMEN

THERE was no meeting in August, but there were two social events which everyone enjoyed.

Chairman Hilda Hathaway hosted a coffee morning at her daughter's home which raised £148 for the Teenage Cancer Trust at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

Paula Smith and Lesley Wilkes arranged a visit to Althorp House, the home of the Spencer family for more than 500 years.

They have arranged a visit to Birmingham Hippodrome to see the 'Sister Act' in October, but this will be the last time they will be arranging a social event and they were than-cked for all their hard work.

At the September meeting Hilda welcomed three new members and three visitors.

Hilda also had the pleasure of presenting awards to Sandra McLeod and Pam Morris for 40 years of service to the Guild. Helen Millington, Joyce Harvey, Shelia Eden, and Val Beale have been attending for 25 years.

Speaker for the evening was Matt Dixon who brought along his trusted canine colleague Ellie and told us about their work with the West Midlands Fire Investigation Service. Gillian Loftus gave the vote of thanks.

There is no speaker for the October meeting as there will be a fish and chip supper.

Lynne Tuckley and Jacquie Gray, SI Cannock & District, planting bulbs at the NMA

THREE Soroptimist regions, Midland Arden, Midland Chase and Midland East, met up at the National Memorial Arboretum for the club's Friendship day and as part of its ongoing support for the site.

Their role was to plant hundreds of crocus and daffodil bulbs in War Widows Wood.

Lynne Tuckley, Jacquie Gray and Trish Mellor from Cannock & District went along and planted daffodil bulbs, alongside Soroptimists from other clubs.

After the planting there was an opportunity to visit the Soroptimist plot, the only place in the world where the Soroptimist flag flies constantly, as well to visit other emotive plots at the NMA.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

The day ended with a friendship tea. Now everyone is looking forward to visiting again in the spring to see the fruits of their labour.

Mystery objects examined

LANDOR SOCIETY

THE Landor Society returned to Sneydlands when Chris Copp from the Staffordshire Museum at Shugborough was the speaker on Mystery Objects

Members participated by examining the objects on a table and then tried to decide what they were and what function they had. Various locally sourced objects were on show such as a lozenge maker from Poynton's Sweet Shop in Hednesford, some leather stretchers from the Lotus shoe factory, a pig scraper from Hood Lane, Armitage and the most tortuous looking item, a calf collar from Cannock.

Members were invited to give a 10-minute talk on a subject of their choice for the October meeting.

MP's bid for rate relief on office turned down

CHASE MP Aidan Burley has been turned down for rate relief on the £6,500 he pays for his town centre office.

Mr Burley applied for an 80 per cent discretionary discount – a saving of £5,480 – on the grounds that the base in Newhall Street is used as an advice centre.

However Cannock Chase Council has refused, saying he earns enough as an MP to pay for the office.

Mr Burley employs two people full-time to help with constituents' problems at a self-styled Help Zone at High Green Court. Mr Burley said the Help Zone was also used by local charities and other groups and argues it alleviates pressure on Chase Advice Centre and the Citizens' Advice Bureau.

Volunteers needed for heathland restoration

MORE than 180 acres of land and 40,000 conifers will be cleared on Cannock Chase to create new much-needed heathland.

Wildlife experts said lowland heath, which provides vital habitat for animals and insects, is as rare as the rainforest.

An army of volunteers is now being sought to help take part in the restoration project.

The people behind the Connecting Cannock Chase Lowland Heathland scheme are also keen to speak with local farmers interested in grazing animals.

Heathland grazing was a practice common on Cannock Chase more than 100 years ago.

The Forestry Commission said 80 per cent of lowland heath has been lost since 1800 but the UK still holds a fifth of the world's stock.

However Staffordshire has lost more than 90 per cent of the habitat.

Roger Wilson, from the Forestry Commission, said: "Trees are vital for a more sustainable future, but we've also been working hard on the Chase to restore heathland and connect sites together with wildlife corridors."

Important

Bernadette Noake, biodiversity co-ordinator at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust, added: "Cannock Chase is both biologically and historically important and has been designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty."

"The habitat is a top priority for nature conservation as it is rare and threatened and supports a wide range of plants and animals."

For more information call 01889 880121.

Strolling on

CHASE & District Group Ramblers head off an easy five-mile walk on the fringes of Cannock Chase to include Walton on the Hill next Wednesday (October 24). The meeting point is Milford Common car park for a prompt 10am departure. The walk leader is John on 01543 686429.

Tipple chance for ale fans at beer festival

BEER enthusiasts will be able to enjoy up to 50 real ales, including 10 from overseas, during a 19-day festival at a Cannock pub.

The overseas beers on offer at The Linford Arms in High Green have been sourced from brewers in Japan, Lithuania, Holland, Australia, Canada, Italy, USA and Belgium.

The festival will also feature tipples from across the UK, including speciality beers made with heather, grapefruit and elderberries and beers brewed exclusively for the pub.

It will run from October 24 until November 11, with all beers priced at £1.99 a pint.

Customers will be able to sample any three real ales in third-of-a-pint glasses for the price of a pint. Tasting notes will be available.

Electrical staff blaze a trail on commando course

Staff members from Ide Electrical Systems, Cannock, who took part in the Royal Marine Commando Challenge

STAFF at a Cannock firm went commando to raise money for two causes.

Ide Systems electrical distribution company, entered an 18-strong mixed and veterans team – the oldest member aged 64 – in the annual Royal Marines Commando challenge. The 4K fun endurance course is one of the commando tests that a Royal Marine has to endure to complete their training.

The company raised more than £2,000 which will go towards The Devon Air Ambulance and 'C' group which supports injured Royal Marines in Operational tours. The weekend as a whole raised a total of £250,000.

Membership rises at gym

GYM membership at Chase Leisure Centre has risen by more than a quarter since its £6.5 million revamp.

In the three months to the end of June, 671 people joined the fitness suite at the refurbished site in Stafford Road, boosting membership by 25.8 per cent to more than 3,000.

An increase of 11.9 per cent was recorded at Rugeley Leisure Centre, in Burnthill Lane, which now has around 1,800 regulars. A recruitment drive is now being launched for 17 new posts, which will be created when the flagship swimming pool at Chase Leisure Centre opens later this month.

Obesity

Council leader George Adamson said: "It's brilliant news, 26 per cent is an incredible rise. This will all help improve people's fitness and health in Cannock Chase, which has been a concern. "We have a problem with obesity in the area and this should help tackle that. I sure that when the swimming pool open we will get even more members.

"I know a lot of people who are just waiting for that to open and say they will join then."

The report assessing the performance of Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust, which took over running leisure centres, museums and theatres in the district in states the outcome has been "generally positive".

Freedom of town honour celebrated

Town council chairman Alan Pearson and Staffordshire Regimental Association president John Pyke

Bearing the standards of the The Regimental Association as members are given the freedom of Hednesford

A MARCH of veterans through Hednesford was described as "brilliant" by town chiefs.

The freedom of the town was given to the Hednesford branch of the Staffordshire Regimental Association as they paraded through the town at the weekend. It is the first time that the honour has been given to any group.

Hundreds of residents and cadets cheered as they walked along Market Street towards the clock tower in Anglesey Square, where a commemorative plaque was unveiled near the clock tower.

Contribution

It reads: "To mark the Diamond Jubilee of HM Queen Elizabeth II 2012, the Hednesford Town Council conferred on the Hednesford branch of the Staffordshire Regimental Association the Freedom of the Town of Hednesford in recognition of its contribution to the local community."

Town council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson said: "It went absolutely brilliantly. The event was really well received by everyone and there was a good service. We have enjoyed giving them the freedom of the town."

£1m investment as Denture Clinic expands into Wolverhampton

A BLACK Country dental business which focuses on solving problems for denture wearers has launched a new practice in Wolverhampton as part of a £1m development plan.

The Denture Clinic project, which will see a massive redevelopment of its existing premises in North Street, Dudley, is simultaneously setting up a new operation on Tettenhall Road, Wolverhampton.

Principal Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng), whose work has attracted patients from as far away as Spain, said just like the Dudley clinic, the new practice will offer patients hand-crafted dentures, prescribed and manufactured on the premises, as well as other services.

Extra staff have been taken on, including a new dentist, practice manager, dental nurse and two technicians, following the completion of a deal to buy Dudley's North Street premises and general practice and develop new work in Wolverhampton.

"We are committed to Wolverhampton and are operating a five-day-a-week service. It has its own Denture Clinic team and a dedicated denture laboratory on site. Having the lab on site gives us a seamless process with all the dental disciplines under one roof. It also offer patients the choice of receiving the latest All-on-4 permanently fixed implant teeth in a single day."

Denture problems?

(We'd love to put a smile on your face with our hand-crafted teeth made at the clinic's premises)

If you've ever worn a denture you'll understand only too well that sometimes they can cause problems.

Stability issues and sore spots on gums are recognised, regular occurrences but these are just the tip of a sinister iceberg.

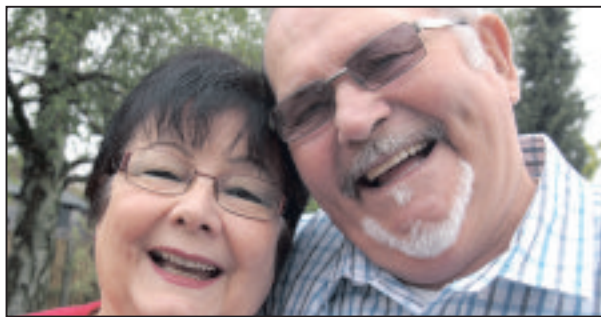

More invasive and socially crippling issues are often hidden and they are both physical and psychological.

With more than 30 years' experience, the Denture Clinic has encountered some heart-rending accounts of how ill-fitting teeth have compromised lives.

There was the case of a mother who travelled from the UK to America for her son's wedding, but never agreed to a single picture being taken of her on the Big Day because she was ashamed of her teeth.

Then there was the consummate actress – a lady in her 70s whom, for the majority of her life, made excuses not to socially engage with her family and friends. She was terrified her teeth would fall out if she laughed or coughed.

And not least there's the case of a lol-

Retired sales director Clive, right, seen here with his wife Magaret, was terrified of dentists. Now he's recommending the Denture Clinic to all of his friends. 'I feel comfortable and confident, it's the best money I've ever spent,' he says lipop lady in her 60s who admitted she never married "because my false teeth were such a mess."

The move to Wolverhampton provides the Denture Clinic a great opportunity to expose new patients to some of the profession's most innovative procedures. "We remain at the cutting edge – it's the best patient investment we can make and allows us the privilege of resolving some of the more complex cases," says clinic principal Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng).

A diverse palette of treatment offers includes:

Traditional dentures: Prescribed and hand-crafted on the premises, these prosthetics when properly manufactured can have stunning clinical outcomes. "It's the detailing that can make all the difference," said Steven. "We drive hard a no-compromises work ethos to ensure our patients always get the best possible clinical outcomes."

Suction solution: Dentures which use suction to stay in place can help resolve stabilisation problems. The Ultra Suction teeth are held in place by tiny valve-operated devices and can sometimes provide a useful option to traditional or implant-retained dentures. The technology allows denture retainer qualities without the need for complex clinical procedures.

Implant-retained dentures: The ultimate, guaranteed solution to stabilisation problems, these dentures are held in position on two or more implant fixings.

All-on-4: A modern, permanent approach that can offer the patient a full arch of implant-fixed teeth in a single day. The teeth feel and function just like your own.

Freefalling father

Stephen Witton, who is doing a charity skydive, with pupils Ben Dempster, Charlie Evans and Harry Witton

A FEARLESS fundraiser will plunge from a plane to support his son's school.

Civil servant Stephen Witton, aged 45, of Cobden Close, is taking on his first skydive at the weekend, with all funds raised from sponsorship going to West Hill Primary School in Hednesford.

Mr Witton's 10-year-old son Harry was diagnosed with autism when he was three and started at the High Mount Street school shortly after he was found to have the condition.

Mr Witton's 44-year-old wife Judy, a hairdresser, is also a parent helper at West Hill.

She said: "I do a lot of fundraising for the school and help out as well, and it's been brilliant for our son. It's such a good school and Stephen just wanted to give something back."

Jean Wares Bob's ring as organist set to wed

A FORMER Cannock school music teacher who made the final of a TV talent show is to marry her long-term partner and manager.

Devoted Bob Ware popped the question to his colourful, organ-playing sweetheart Jean Martyn – finalist on Britain's Got Talent – while the two were enjoying a Baltic cruise. Jean, now of Brewood, said she was “over the moon”.

The engagement comes seven years after they first met through the Rotary Club of Brewwood where they were members.

Jean, aged 61, said: "It was a total surprise. I had no idea he was going to propose."

She said she was asked to perform several impromptu concerts on the cruise ship after one of the guests recognised her.

Surprised

She added the cruise director came over and asked if she would like to play.

"I couldn't exactly say no at that point," she said.

"After performing a classical concert on the piano, Bob came towards me. I was surprised because he usually stands in the background.

"He said he wanted to speak to me about a future booking. He pushed the ring on my finger and that was that. I was more than happy to accept his proposal."

Jean Martyn and Bob

Jean said they had not yet discussed where they would be getting married.

Since Jean made a name for herself on the 2011 talent show series, she has played at St James's Palace, Buckingham Palace and appeared on Big Brother, Loose Women and The Paul O'Grady Show.

FOCUS ON HEDNESFORD

Praise for turnout at youth club first night

A NEW youth club in Hednesford has held its first session with a high turnout of youngsters.

Pye Green Community centre in Bradbury Lane, opened its doors to teenagers last Friday in a bid to keep them off the streets and out of trouble.

Michelle Williams, team leader, said: "Friday went well with 15 people turning up for the first night."

Support

"The evening was focused on young people looking at what they wanted to do at the club in the future."

"Two of the youngsters offered to come slightly early on Fridays to help staff set up."

"Hopefully we will be able to keep hold of them and support them in the long run to become young leaders."

Sessions are held every Friday from 6-8pm and cost 50p.

Festive event competition

CHILDREN in Hednesford are being asked to submit ideas for leaflets and posters to advertise the town's Christmas event.

The festive event is on November 30 and the closing date for designs is November 9. For more information visit www.hednesford-tc.gov.uk

Criticism as land sold off to make way for housing

MORE than 20 acres of land has been sold off in Hednesford for 330 new homes to be built. The deal has been struck between the county council and Persimmon Homes.

The county council has agreed to an undisclosed fee with the firm for the open space at Pye Green Valley.

Around £700,000 is expected to be handed out in Section 106 money as part of the deal, which is set to be sent on improving the former Cannock Stadium site with new football pitches, a running track and changing rooms.

But residents and councillors have spoken out against the decision.

Councillor George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase Council, said: "They should be keeping it as an open space, that would be the sensible thing to do."

Habitat

"Kids use it to play football on, people use it to walk their dogs. Hednesford needs a lot of open space, it hasn't got a lot. It will also lead to an increase in cars," he added.

Lisa Pearce, a 42-year-old mother who lives in nearby Granary Close, said: "It will change the face of the valley and will be cutting the habitat area in half."

"There will be endless construction traffic and there are going to be enough

by Harry Gottschalk

school places for all of these homes?

"The valley should stay as it is and belong to the people of Hednesford."

Staffordshire County Council says the authority cannot disclose the cost of the land while the sale is going through.

Councillor Mark Winnington, the council's cabinet member for environment and assets, said: "It is a significant capital return which will be used for the benefit of everyone in Staffordshire."

Steven Hird, managing director for Persimmon Homes West Midlands, said: "We believe there is significant demand for quality new build housing in the area."

The Pye Green Valley lies approximately a mile north of Cannock town centre and a third of a mile away from the centre of Hednesford.

Pye Green Valley was the location of the former West Cannock Collieries - numbers one, two and three - a prosperous mining area.

Nicola Bannister, museum visitor services officer, promotes the Halloween activities

Spooky holiday activities

CHILDREN can visit the Tunnel of Fear during a series of "spooktacular" half-term events at the Museum of Cannock Chase in Valley Road, Hednesford.

A number of workshops are also planned, starting on Monday October 29 with Creepy Crafts and Potion Power, where visitors can make supernatural silhouettes, spiders and bats.

Tuesday will see barmy banners, decorations, witches' hats and spooky lights made at a drop-in workshop. "Ghostly Goings On" follow the next day when visitors can make ghoulish bookmarks, mesmerising mummies and broomsticks. The week will end with Halloween Horrors and Trick or Treat drop-in workshops.

Drop-ins are for all children and their families and cost £1 per child. Pre-booked workshops cost £3 a head.

To book or for more details call 01543 877666.

Goodies in prize draw are to be presented

PEOPLE who took part in a consultation over Hednesford Park will soon be receiving their prizes.

Cannock Chase Council submitted a £2.6m Stage 2 Heritage Lottery Fund bid for the park and sent out 4,000 questionnaires asking what the local residents as part of the bid.

Everyone who took part in the consultation was entered into a prize draw and the winners have now been drawn.

Skateboard

They will be presented with their prizes - which comprise a BMX bike and helmet, a skateboard and an Amazon Kindle - on Halloween night during a Lantern Story walk.

The event starts at 4pm by the clock tower in the town centre and w end in the park.

The council will find out in December if the Lottery bid has been successful.

Lantern walk for Halloween

A HALLOWEEN story walk will be held in Hednesford town centre at the end of this month.

The event is being hosted by The Friends of Hednesford Park on October 31 at 4pm and will include a scary story walk, live entertainment and a fun fair.

Hospitals' revenue rises after parking fee increase

Go for gold at art show

Museum of Cannock Chase services assistants Abi Morris and Harriet Green are inviting submissions for the Open Art exhibition

ARTISTS can go for gold at an open art event at the Museum of Cannock Chase.

To build on the legacy of London 2012, gold, silver and bronze awards will be handed out to the best exhibitors at this year's show. To enter, people must live or work in the district of Cannock Chase.

Work must have been created within 2011 or 2012. It is open to professional or amateur artists with all art forms considered. The exhibition runs until December 19.

HEALTH bosses at Cannock and Stafford hospitals have taken a six per cent rise in parking revenue after an increase in fees for patients and visitors.

Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust has taken £367,433 from motorists at both sites since the new tariffs were introduced in January. The figure compares to £346,162 from the same period last year.

This marks a rise in revenue of £21,271. Hospital bosses maintained the new charges were brought in to reduce congestion and not to raise money for the trust.

Chris Eccles, the trust's associate director of estates and facilities, said: "The alteration to parking charges was just one element of an ongoing programme to improve flow and reduce congestion in our car parks."

Increments

The new parking charges range from 80p for up to 30 minutes to £6 for 24 hours, with several increments in between. They were previously £2 for up to four hours, £4 for between four and eight hours and £8 for eight to 24 hours.

The highest rise was a 50 per cent jump from £4 to £6 for people staying between seven and eight hours, although fees dropped from £8 to £6 for people staying longer than eight hours.

Revised rates of £2.50 for one to two hours, £3 for two to three hours, £3.50 for three to five hours and £4 for five to seven hours were brought in from January.

Messy time at church

CHILDREN can get stuck in with a Messy Church session in Hednesford this weekend. It takes place at Trinity Church, Station Road, from 3pm on Sunday (October 21). The theme of the two-hour session will be "Give Thanks". It will feature crafts, stories, songs and food.

Fundraisers on the run to bring in charity cash

Jonathon Morris from Huntington gets ready for his run to raise money for Birmingham Children's Hospital

Claire Arblaster of Heath Hayes, who is running her fifth half-marathon of the year in aid of the Poppy Appeal

A CANNOCK father is raising money for the hospital that treated his daughter after she was born with a hole in her heart.

Jonathon Morris, of Progress Grove, Huntington, will be taking part in the Bupa Great Birmingham Run on Sunday, October 21 in aid of Birmingham Children's Hospital.

His daughter Alesha, now nine-months-old, was taken there shortly after being born with multiple medical problems, including what was thought to be a heart murmur.

She was rushed to surgery after a scan revealed the suspected murmur was in fact a rare hole in the back of her heart. Mr Morris, aged 27, said: "It was overwhelming when we first found out. I didn't know what to do or where to turn, but the hospital was fantastic. They gave us so much support and I can't praise them enough.

"Being there, my wife Susie and I saw other kids in even worse positions. I hope to raise between £1,000 and £1,500 to help the medics continue their great work.

Success

Doctors say Alesha is now healthy, although she will need regular maintenance support at the hospital.

Mr Morris said he was "over the moon" when he heard the operation had been a success.

He added: "Alesha's such a resilient child and she bounced back. The first thing she did when she saw me after the operation was smile. That was just amazing."

Meanwhile, a super fundraiser is to run her fifth half-marathon of the year for charities close to her heart.

Claire Arblaster, a 37-year-old air hostess, has so far raised money for prostate cancer research as her father, Joseph Tooth, is battling the disease.

However, she will take to the streets this time around for the Poppy Appeal as her father-in-law, Trevor Arblaster, works closely with the Royal British Legion in Great Wyrley.

Mrs Arblaster, of Heath Hayes, said she wanted to raise as much money as possible. "They are very good causes and I hope to raise lots of money. I've got a collection pot by my loo and even ask friends to my house to donate a pound every time they use it," she said.

Why have a conservatory when you can have an Orangery from £9,999

Imagine an elegant and comfortable room, a warm and bright space that is the envy of all. This is what an orangery will bring to your home. Relax in style on warm summer days and enjoy a feeling of comfort and warmth on long winter evenings.

Orangeries provide a unique multi-purpose living space for every home, from kitchen extension, living room, dining room or playroom. Our orangery uses the market leading Global roof with a well-engineered internal pel met framework, which is then plastered, giving the roof a perimeter ceiling all the way round. Within this perimeter roof you can choose to add down lighters or audio speakers, giving you the opportunity to personalise your new room.

The gutter line of the roof of the orangery is hidden from view by a decorative cornice that rises above the flat section and this cornice conceals the orangery gutter for a more attractive external appearance. A fully glazed conservatory might not be to everyone's taste, therefore the combination of traditionally built features and glazing of an orangery creates a more substantial and interesting effect.

Slick and sassy sisters a class act

Sister Act, Birmingham Hippodrome
THIS quick, slick and never-miss-a-trick production based on a Hollywood smash hit movie is populated by a wealth of talent - most notably the powerful voice and sassy nature of Cynthia Erivo as main character Delores, a role made famous by Whoopi Goldberg.

Alongside her was soap favourite Denise Black as the Mother Superior who, although not a natural singer, held her own.

Set in 1970s America, Delores is forced to hide from her dubious friends after witnessing a mob execution.

The unfortunately named cop,

Sweaty Eddie, finds the perfect hiding place for the brash Delores when she decides to turn state witness... a convent.

Throwing Delores into the sisters' sanctuary has the same effect as hurling a firework into a gunpowder store, just wait for the bang and watch sparks fly.

Thanks to a sterling cast there is never a dull moment as the new sister brings her own particular style of Catholicism to her eager sisters, ably abetted by Michael Starke as Monsignor O'Hara and belligerent brides of Christ Sisters Mary Robert (played by Julie Atherton), Mary Lazarus (Jacqueline Clarke) and Mary Patrick (Laurie Scarth).

The set pieces are executed with precision, with all the cast having strong and clear voices but worthy of note were Edward Barua's solo and quick change routine as Sweaty and baddie Gavin Cornwall's henchmen as Supremes-style backing singers.

The impressive sets, the furious dancing and the harmonised voices all led to a finale which was spectacular and as glitzy as anything on Strictly Come Dancing.

Sister Act continues at the Hippodrome to Saturday, October 20.

Haunting drama lacks chills

Haunting Julia, Wolverhampton Grand
ALAN Ayckbourn is probably the UK's most popular and prolific living playwright. He is a master of witty dialogue and an expert on the mores and morals of the married middle classes.

Haunting Julia, which he wrote 18 years ago, is his only play in which he attempts to scare an audience. It's a ghost story but it is also about guilt, the perils of being gifted and contains eloquent exposition on the supernatural.

It is set in a flat that has been turned into a museum dedicated to its former occupier Julia, a musical genius who died in her bedroom from an accidental (or suicidal) overdose of sleeping pills at the age of 19. Twelve years after her death her still grieving father, her former boyfriend and a psychic apparently conjure her spirit by obsessing over the reasons for her untimely demise.

The play is superbly acted by the three players. Duncan Preston is the bluff Yorkshire father who cannot accept that his talented daughter may have killed herself, or that he could never really appreciate her talent.

Joe McFadden hides a secret as the now married ex-boyfriend who is sceptical about the supernatural.

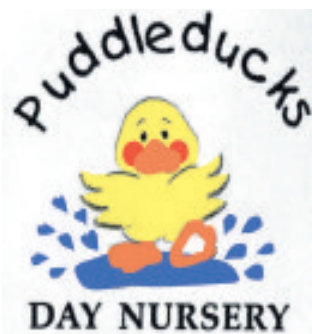

Richard O'Callaghan is the lisping psychic who may be unleashing dangerous forces beyond his control.

The dialogue is good and interesting ideas are touched on. Is the father's grief preventing Julia moving on? Is an all-consuming talent a curse? But Ayckbourn doesn't explore the ideas fully and too often lightens the mood with humour, which punctures any growing air of menace.

The shocks are provided by loud noises and a big finale that involves some neat special effects. But Haunting Julia has one major flaw for those anticipating a spine-tingling ghost story... it's not scary.

It continues at the Grand to Saturday. Leon Burakowski

Schoolchildren in the existing fitness room at Staffordshire University Academy, in Hednesford

Science is fun for the students

Pupils look smart and have a sense of belonging in Staffordshire University Academy uniforms

Come and be a part of something outstanding

An artist's impression of how the new £9.7 Staffordshire University Academy building will look

AS a parent of a Year 6 student within the Cannock and Rugeley area I know you will be passionate about making sure you find the best possible secondary school for your son or daughter to attend.

You will have visited lots of different secondary schools during September and October, who will have all told you that they can offer the very best in teaching staff and resources, value for money and lots of enrichment opportunities.

You may even be very clear on which secondary school your child will be attending but just before you make what is a massive decision, why not take the time to visit us and see why we can offer you a unique opportunity to attend Staffordshire University Academy – An Academy with a difference.

Why are we different? For starters we can offer the a chance to enrol in our academy which from September 2013 will boast: a £9.7m brand new 21st century building with state-of-the-art facilities; a £720,000 investment in ICT and future technologies which will provide access to learning anytime anywhere; a purpose-built Sixth Form centre to ensure all students have a pathway into Post16 and University; a brand new sports hall, a BMX track and enhanced outdoor space; passionate and highly qualified teaching staff.

In a recent conversation with the Academy Council students from Year 7 through to the Sixth Form outlined the fact they are extremely excited about the new build and that as an Academy we already have good facilities, inspirational staff, fun and good to outstanding lessons, coupled with a fantastic rewards system which is linked to prizes awarded every six weeks.

Improved

If you are from outside of the Academy catchment area then you may not even know we exist and you certainly won't know about our fantastic achievements in recent years.

These include: Best results in 2012 of 87 per cent 5A*-C Grades at GCSE; 98 per cent of students passed their A levels last year; most improved school in Staffordshire in the last three years; rated as 'Outstanding' over the last three years by Specialist Schools and Academies Trust (SSAT) and third most improved School in the County in the last three years.

It is a myth if you believe that living outside of the Academy catchment area means that you will be unable to gain a place at the Academy for September 2013.

The Academy can offer a free bus service to students and families who want to come and take advantage of this outstanding opportunity. However in order to gain access to this opportunity and join us at Staffordshire University Academy you must put the Academy down as first choice on your returns to the local authority.

In our new build we would like to offer the opportunity for all to join us whether you live within our catchment or beyond. If you choose us as first choice we will work with the local authority in providing you with a place, even if this means we have to provide you with free transport.

Sounds too good to be true? Why not come and visit us and have an audience with the principal, Mr David Evans, next Wednesday, October 24 at 6.30pm at the academy in Marston Road, Hednesford

What have you got to lose?

NEWS

Company's pride at role in FA centre

BOSSSES at a Cheslyn Hay company spoke of their pride after carrying out the £400,000 landscaping work at the FA's new centre of excellence.

The £100m St George's Park near Burton, was officially opened by the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Landscaping experts Jack Moody Ltd, of Warstone Road, began work on the 330-acre site in September last year.

Its dozen-strong team, along with sub-contractors, carried out turfing and seeding, planted shrubs and semi-mature trees and created walled flower areas and tree-lined avenues and pathways. Much of the material used, including large quantities of topsoil and compost, came from Jack Moody's recycling facilities.

On cue for award

Snooker star Steve Davis presents the trophy to Mews owner and managing director Pete Mew

A GREAT Wyrley company has won an outstanding achievement award. Mews Windows was honoured by the national standards organisation Network VEKA.

Network VEKA is a specialist organisation which only accepts companies that have proved themselves to uphold the highest possible standards, then makes sure they continue to do so.

The award was presented to Pete Mew, owner and managing director of Mews Windows, by snooker star Steve Davis at Network VEKA's recent AGM in Cheshire.

Davis, a six-times world champion is a brand ambassador for Network VEKA. Congratulating the team, he said: "This is really a fantastic achievement: you should be very proud."

Mews Windows, of Chestnut Drive, was one of three companies which received a special recognition award forgetting into the spirit of Network VEKA.

Disappointment over legal threat

A CANNOCK councillor says she is 'disappointed' at plans by Hednesford's bingo owner to take legal action over a parking wrangle.

Andrew Reilly, owner of Hednesford Bingo Hall, threatened to go to the courts should the changes to the town centre affect his livelihood. Under the plans, supermarket Aldi would be given control of 121 of the 165 parking spaces, with a 90-minute time limit proposed.

Mr Reilly believes the proposals to leave just 44 bays without a time limit at the Chase Gateway scheme could affect his business. Talks were held between Mr Reilly, Cannock Chase Council and developers St Modwen. Mr Reilly said if fresh talks in the new year did not prove favourable, he would look at legal action.

But Councillor Diane Todd, the council's regeneration leader, said: "The recent meeting between the council, St Modwen and Mr Reilly was positive."

Impact

"I was disappointed to read Mr Reilly's comments that he is considering legal action when our understanding is that this is not the case."

"We have agreed with Mr Reilly that our conversation will continue in the new year after Victoria Shopping Park has opened, and we can see the impact of its 640 new car park spaces for the town centre."

Classic Merseyside musical is back by popular demand

ONE of the nation's all-time favourite musicals, Blood Brothers, returns to the West Midlands next week.

Willy Russell's Liverpool blend of comedy and tragedy about ill-fated twins divided by class and opportunity has been running in the West End for more than 20 years. There has also been several highly successful touring productions. The key role of Scouse matriarch Mrs Johnstone has been played by Barbara Dickson, Stephanie Lawrence, Helen Reddy, Lyn Paul, several Nolan sisters and former Spice Girl Melanie Chisholm.

Last show is just a start

RISING stars of the comedy scene will be in Wolverhampton this autumn.

Leading the way are podcaster and Edinburgh Festival sensations, Wolverhampton's own Pappy's.

The trio's latest series of sketches looks back at Pappy's Last Show Ever. It's at Wolverhampton Slade Rooms on Saturday, October 27. Despite the title, it will not be the last of Pappy's, as they are creating a TV sit-com for BBC3.

Frisky and Mannish, who twist pop music to their own comic ends, are at the Wulfrun Hall for Extra-Curricular Activities on Thursday, November 1. The undefinable Paul Foot brings his musings to the Slade Rooms on November 16.

Hippodrome

In recent years the role has become associated with Tamworth singer and actress Niki Evans, who was a finalist in 2007's The X Factor, and will be returning to the role at Birmingham Hippodrome from Monday, October 22, to Saturday, November 3.

Fresh from performing in the West End production, former Wet Wet Wet pop star Marti Pellow will be in the role of the Narrator.

A blend of cheeky humour and hard-hitting drama, the award-winning Blood Brothers has one of the most dramatic finales in any musical.

The score includes Marilyn Monroe, Bright New Day and the emotional Tell Me It's Not True.

Downton actor has doctor role

DOWNTON Abbey and Cold Feet actor Robert Bathurst stars as a psychiatrist in a revival of British playwright Joe Penhall's Blue/Orange in Birmingham next week.

Set in a psychiatric hospital, it features a clash between junior and senior doctors over the fate of a patient who is convinced that he is the son of a notorious African dictator.

Described as a sardonic comedy, it was first staged by the National Theatre 12 years ago and won several awards.

The play is at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre from Tuesday to Saturday, October 23 to 27.

It also features former Hollyoaks actor Gerard McCarthy, who is in forthcoming BBC thriller The Fall, and National Theatre actor Oliver Wilson.

Christopher Luscombe directs.

Children's favourites on the road

CHILDREN'S favourites Chris and Pui are on the road, and bring their show to Cannock next weekend.

The CBeebies double act will be entertaining youngsters with live stage versions of Incey Wincey Spider, Humpty Dumpty, the Grand Old Duke of York and other rhymes and sketches.

Chris Jarvis and Pui Fan Lee are stars of Show Me Show Me on CBeebies and are at the Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street on Sunday, October 28.

Tickets are available for two showtimes, 11am and 2pm. They are priced at £12 or £42 for a family. Call the box office on 01543 578762 to book.

November kicks off at the Prince of Wales Centre with Stars In Your Eyes, billed as a night with the UK's biggest tribute stars, Tina Turner, Michael Buble, Rod Stewart and Barbra Streisand. Tickets are £20 for the November 1, 7.30pm concert.

Medium in date at Ramada Hotel

MEDIUM Stephen Holbrook returns to Cannock next month with a show at the Ramada Hotel.

The show is at 7.30pm on Tuesday, November 20, with tickets at £16, either at the door or on 01924 256542. Money will be raised on the night for children's cancer charity PACT.

BBC1, 9.10pm

It's a disastrous day for Zoe. One minute she is doing her shopping, the next she's struggling to deal with a suspected E-coli outbreak when shop-worker Simon collapses. To make matters worse, she's nearly run down by an elderly driver seeking help for his sick wife, and Ms Hanna's TV interview regarding the outbreak is taken out of context, creating bad blood for the staff. Meanwhile, a young lad merrily playing in a bottling factory has a narrow escape when he gets his hand caught in a conveyor belt. Sunetra Sarker heads the cast.

Pick of the Week

Michael goes nuts in Brazilian adventure

If you do a search on the Internet for 'Brazil with Michael Palin', chances are the results will feature a 1985 film directed by his old Monty Python mate Terry Gilliam.

In it, Palin subverts his nice-guy image by playing Jack Lint, a hard-working but unscrupulous torturer who is loyal only to the regime that employs him.

We can assure viewers that Palin won't be appearing as that character in this new, four-part series. Instead, he's back to his affable best and back on the road.

After spending the past 25 years travelling the world for our entertainment, you would think that Palin had been everywhere, wouldn't you?

It's true that the comedian-turned-actor-turned-globetrotter has hard stamps in his passport than most people, but there's one place he's never been to, and it happens to be the fifth-biggest country on the planet - Brazil.

"I'd spent one night there in 1996, on the way from South Africa to Chile to fly to the South Pole, and had seen nothing except the salesmen on Copacabana Beach," he says.

Brazil is a nation that, over the next four years, will increasingly be in the spotlight because not only will it host football's World Cup in 2014, it's also the next host country of the Olympic Games in 2016.

Palin begins his tour in the north east, which was once an area populated by European settlers who grew wealthy by exploiting slave labour; now it has a vibrant mix of cultures.

In São Luis, he learns about a 200-year-old ceremony performed on its backstreets, goes dancing, and samples life with the local area's old-style cowboys.

Then it's on to Salvador, where Palin learns about the religion of Candomblé and tries African drumming before rounding off the first leg of his tour by taking a trip on a traditional saaveiro boat.

"It was a thrilling journey, full of great sensations, and provided I can stay on my feet, I think this Brazil series has the potential to be very special."

But even if it isn't, you get the impression that Palin will shrug it off, and continue to smile: "My general feeling is that I'm extraordinarily fortunate to be alive and try and look at each day as an enormous opportunity."

Another reason for Palin's stability is his happy home life. He's been married to childhood sweetheart Helen since 1966, and they have three adult children - Tom, Will and Rachel. However, none of them accompany him on his travels. "It's difficult enough to make these journeys with a crew of seven," he explains. "There's no time for family life really, it's a sort of commando raid - a little group of people who all have something to do - and you wouldn't take your granny on a commando raid."

"Also, my wife is quite happy to let me get on with doing this. She's got used to it over the years. Even before I was doing travel shows I'd be filming away for six weeks at a time. Now the children are grown up it's much easier."

He may only just have returned, but we're already looking forward to his next trip.

Brazil with Michael Palin, Wednesday, BBC1, 9pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Jamie's 15 Minute Meals, Channel 4, 9pm

Throughout this - fast-paced - new series (of which he's written a book in the same vein), Jamie has improved on his 30-minute-meals series a couple of years back, appealing to all the microwave-loving haphazard cooks and mums-on-the-go in demonstrating that in the time it takes to heat up a ready-meal, with a bit of organisation, a delicious feast can be cooked from scratch. Each half-hour episode will feature two super-fast nutritious family meals, beginning with chilli con carne meatballs, plus sticky kickin' chicken.

MONROE

ITV1, 9pm

It looks like there's romance in the air for Monroe (Jamie Nesbitt) and Lizzie (Tracy-Ann Oberman). Of course, nothing goes to plan in Gabriel's world, so there's little surprise when their date doesn't quite go as expected. The medics have plenty on their plate when Sally Indale (Jennifer Hennessey) is admitted. She has a history of fitting and aggressive episodes, so when she has an MRI scan, the surgeons are amazed to find an aneurysm the size of the Isle of Wight deep in her temporal lobe. If Sally agrees to a frightening operation - hypothermic circulatory arrest - Monroe believes he can restore her old personality.

TUESDAY

Rolf's Animal Clinic, Channel 5, 8pm

For 10 years, Rolf Harris was the host of much-loved BBC series Animal Hospital. Now he's back with this similarly themed new series. Rolf's Animal Clinic sets up shop at the University of Liverpool's Leahurst campus, which is home to one of the UK's top veterinary colleges. It also operates three specialist hospitals treating cats and dogs, horses and farm animals, and two teams of mobile vets. The first patient is Millie, a family's pet horse who is brought in with a life-threatening case of colic and needs emergency surgery. There's also a chance to meet two very excitable alpacas, a pet pig with an unsightly lump and a bulldog who's been put on a diet. It must be just like old times for Rolf!

WEDNESDAY
Grand Designs, Channel 4, 9pm

If you want to live in one of west London's most exclusive areas, sometimes you have to be a little creative with space management, as Audrey and Jeff know only too well. They plan to transform a listed Edwardian artist's studio - along with 5,000 sq ft of derelict basement - into a bespoke subterranean home. The des res will feature a super-size kitchen, mezzanine sitting room, four en-suite bedrooms, a gym, cinema, steam room and wine cellar. It's a tricky enough task with proper architect's drawings, but they have made a rod for their backs by opting to go ahead without. Audrey is project-managing, but it's not long before they have hit the first of many problems.

DCI Banks

ITV1, 9pm

DCI Banks and DI Morton investigate when a professional hit-man bursts in to the luxurious house of Keith Rothwell and shoots him at close range. What strikes Banks, though, are the strange reactions of the victim's family and it soon becomes evident that Rothwell has been living a secret double life. Seemingly, Banks finds himself involved in a fraud investigation that pits him against an old police rival. The case also brings about personal issues for the detectives, as Morton continues to struggle to fit into her new environment.

THURSDAY

The Town That Caught Tourette's, Channel 4, 9pm

Tourette syndrome isn't contagious, is it? Before watching this documentary, you would say a resounding 'no', but afterwards... Well, you'll need to make up your own mind. In October 2011, in Le Roy, a small town in New York, a handful of teenage girls from the same high school began displaying symptoms that looked like they had suddenly developed Tourette's - facial twitching, violent limb gestures and verbal outbursts. Here, those who suffered - and in some cases, are still suffering - discuss the situation and what they feel caused their symptoms. They also reveal how they coped with what happened, in particular the media furore that began after some of the girls went on TV in the hope of raising awareness of their problem

FRIDAY

Piers Morgan's Life Stories: Burt Reynolds, ITV1, 9pm

He was once the biggest movie star in the world, a hirsute hunk whose million-dollar grin and trademark 'tache left women the world over weak at the knees. However, a series of bad decisions saw Burt Reynolds turning out a string of so-so films and TV shows in his later years. This week, Piers Morgan grills the star of films such as Smokey and the Bandit and The Cannonball Run. As ever, Morgan will be asking the questions some interviewers refuse to, but let's hope he's a little kinder on Reynolds than he was on his Cannonball Run co-star Roger Moore the other week.

Derren Brown: Apocalypse, Channel 4, 9pm

Derren Brown's latest mind-boggling feat sees him attempt to convince one person that the planet has been devastated by a catastrophic meteorite strike, that zombies have taken over the land and he is one of a handful of survivors. The survivor is someone who takes his life for granted, but he won't for much longer, as this meticulously crafted adventure threatens to give him just the wake-up call he needs. Chances are that Derren will have done it again - baffled all of us that is.

JR Properties bespoke offices, situated in the Venture Point building, off the by-pass in the Towers Business area

Company director James Richards, with sales negotiator Emma Snaithe and mortgage specialist, Lisa Bardell

Estate agents now firmly established – one year on

Rugeley-based estate agent JR Properties is celebrating this week after firmly establishing itself as one of the leading agents in the area – just a year after opening its doors.

Company director James Richards, who was born in Rugeley, is thrilled with the success to date and plans to open JR Lettings in the new year.

James said: "In a challenging property market, choosing an effective estate agent is essential when looking to buy, sell or let a property and this was foremost in my thoughts when launching JR Properties.

"We wanted to go that extra mile and be different, and we are different, even down to our branding and company name which, incidentally, has nothing to do with the recent Dallas revival."

James himself has worked in both corporate and independent estate agency for over 10 years in the area and brings a wealth of experience and local knowledge to JR's customers.

Sell

"We will only offer to sell your property if we genuinely believe we can sell it. After all, that's why you are placing it on the market isn't it.

"All marketing that we offer you whether it be our internet coverage to our unique black and white for sale boards gets your property noticed by all the right people in all the right places, which is what's required," he said.

Even the office location of JR properties is different. "Our bespoke offices are situated in the iconic 'Venture Point' building on Wheelhouse Road, just off the by-pass in the Towers Business area of the town. "Our customers past and present have all positively commented on the office's easy to find and convenient location with free parking," James added.

If you are thinking of selling, buying or letting or require mortgage then call in for an informal chat or contact JR properties on 01889 580280 – or follow on Facebook.

The Santa Fe has a higher seat position which makes for a relaxing drive

By Ian Donaldson

NOT long ago the easiest way to spark road rage was simply driving a big off-roader through a crowded town centre; everyone thought you were a pretentious poseur.

Now they don't. Or at least, most of them don't. Today, the off-roader is renamed an SUV, for sport utility vehicle, and we can't get enough of them. So popular are the chunky charms of a modern SUV that buyers are ditching estates and people carriers in their thousands to move up in the world (literally; sitting higher is a big SUV attraction).

Today's SUV helps the switchover too, with lighter bodies and more efficient engines – nearly always a diesel – making them use less fuel than before. And advances in suspension design have banished much of the rock and roll feel that went with off-roaders of old.

The latest Santa Fe from Korean car maker Hyundai shows how far the SUV has come. The last one was a big seller here, with UK buyers taking a third of all sales across Europe and added features mean the newcomer might do better still.

For the first time the Santa Fe can be had with two-wheel drive; cutting the off-road ability of the previously four-wheel drive only range but cutting the cost and improving economy. Even so, sales are expected to be overwhelmingly all-wheel drive models.

Prices start at £25,495 for a two-wheel drive version and rise to the £34,395 asked for a seven seat Santa Fe with auto gears and all the bells and whistles.

Wider

Talking seats, the seven seat Santa Fe makes a much more style conscious statement than the slab-sided people carriers that big families often have to pick as their personal transport. The latest interior finds a bit more space than before in a body a little longer and wider but lower than the outgoing Santa Fe and a whole lot better looking, with crisp, flowing lines and well placed licks of chrome adding an upmarket feel.

It's diesel only under the bonnet as we Brits leave thirsty petrol SUVs to the newly minted millionaires of China and the Middle East. The 2.2 litre engine in the new Santa Fe is a lusty performer but you're never in any doubt that diesel runs in its veins, with a chuntering soundtrack in the back-ground.

The lazy charms of a big diesel match perfectly to an automatic gearbox and the test car was as relaxing as can be, even when brushing off the hills and hollows of a modestly demanding off-road course laid on for my drive. It returned 35mpg on my shortish test drive.

Among the safety features of every new Santa Fe is trailer stability assist, which brakes individual wheels on the car to settle things down if it senses things are beginning to snake a bit behind.

Hill start assist keeps the brakes on for a second or two while your foot flees from brake to accelerator pedal on a slope, while the commanding driving position that comes with all SUVs makes judging the road ahead a bit more relaxing than in cars with seats nearer the ground.

The midrange spec of the £31,895 auto Premium test car lacked for little. Standard kit includes satellite navigation, reverse parking camera, dual zone climate control, leather seat trim and self-levelling rear suspension.

Every Santa Fe has heated front seats, Bluetooth connectivity and a bonnet that pops up at the rear in a pedestrian collision to minimise head injuries.

Gadgets and gizmos include satnav and dual zone climate control

VOLVO'S mid-sized crossover SUV the XC90 has been with us since 2002 and it is fair to say is probably due for a re-generation – after all ten years as the first generation, although tweaked over those years, is far longer than Dr Who manages.

But it looks as though the earliest we might see a new face is in 2013.

However the 2012 version with refinements to both the interior and exterior is well worth a drive. On the plus side it is cheaper than most of its rivals but it can be more expensive to run and residuals can be disappointing.

But the Volvo with its safety image will still appeal to those who want security around them.

When launched, the XC90 offered a unique blend of attractive styling, practicality and seven-seat versatility that saw it become a hit. Since then, the XC range has grown with the XC70 and the introduction of the award winning XC60.

The XC90 is designed to give an elegant, muscular and robust impression, which has been reinforced through a number of refined details.

The day running light configuration using LEDs in the lower bumper gives the front more character. The redesigned silver metallic bumper bar as well as silver roof rails are now standard on all variants. There is also a lower door moulding and all XC90 specifications are now fully colour-coordinated.

Luxurious

The tail lamps have dual light guides, LED brake lights and a silver turn indicator bulb (still with orange light). There's also a six-spoke 18-inch wheel in a silver matt finish.

Inside the feeling is fairly luxurious and includes a three-spoke steering wheel, aluminium décor as standard and the watch dial-inspired instrument design with white lighting.

There is also bags of space, as you would expect in a car of this size.

And space is flexible with five and seven-seat options. Passengers in the second row can slide their seats right back if needed but legroom for adult third-row passengers is a little tight. However children are fine.

More importantly even with seven-up you still get a fair luggage space with 500mm of boot length left.

And that second row of seats is actually three independent seats which can all be moved forwards and backwards independently. So even more flexibility and it is really easy to move those seats.

For those carrying children the outer seats have Isofix mounts and the centre seat slides forward so that a child can sit almost between the front seats.

You can remove a bolster cushion and also the rear centre console box.

An Executive specification has exclusive options including soft leather seats with ventilation and massage.

An R-Design version is a little more sporty with a special chassis.

By Sharon Walters

The Volvo On Call system can be combined with Bluetooth mobile phone connection. The system has music streaming from a preferred Bluetooth enabled portable music player. Volvo is the only car brand to offer Bluetooth music streaming throughout the entire vehicle range.

In addition there is a mobile application that makes sure that the driver can stay in touch with the parked car via an iPhone or Android smart phone. The mobile application is an extension of Volvo On Call.

Owners of Volvos from Model Year 2012 with Volvo On Call can download the mobile application that opens up a range of possibilities, such as:

Car locator. The location of the car is shown on a map. There is also a digital compass that points the driver in the right direction.

Vehicle dashboard. This feature gives the driver access to a wide range of information: fuel level, remaining range to empty tank, average fuel consumption, average speed, odometer reading and trip meter reading.

Car check. The mobile app performs a "health" check of the car, displaying information about bulbs, brake fluid level, coolant level, engine oil level and engine oil pressure.

Being a Volvo, safety equipment headlines the equipment list. SIPS (Side Impact Protection System and airbags), WHIPS (Whiplash Protection System) and IC (Inflatable Curtain) are all standard, along with dual-stage driver and front passenger airbags.

You only get the choice of one engine now – the 2.4 litre D5 AWD, and while not speedy there's still enough power to get you out of trouble. You can get from 0-60mph in 9.7 seconds and there is a top speed of 127mph.

The six-speed automatic gearbox is fairly slick and braking is excellent – as I found out when a deer careered in front of me in the dark on the Ironbridge bypass.

It's not an extreme off-roader thanks to its all-independent suspension and relatively low-set floorpan, but it managed a grassy and rocky track up to me friend's remote home with ease.

Prices for the XC90 start at £36,045.

Focus on seconds as firsts in walkover

Burntwood 13 Aldridge 10

BURNWOOD firsts were given a walkover into the third round of the RFU Senior Vase when opponents Belper cried off due to a lack of front row players. Attention then focused on the second string who entertained Aldridge at The Sportsway in front of a sizeable crowd. There was not much to warm up them up on a cold afternoon but the hosts managed to win despite spending much of the match in their own half.

When the hosts finally broke into Aldridge territory, an infringement led to Matt Carless landing a straightforward penalty to open the scoring.

Aldridge spent the rest of the first period in the Burntwood half but a penalty from in front of the posts skimmed the upright.

Sixteen minutes into the second period an Aldridge player infringed and was sin-binned leaving Ben Holt to double Burntwood's score with a penalty.

Aldridge got the try they threatened 33 minutes in, but Ben Poulton replied and Holt converted.

Aldridge hit back and four minutes into added time stretched the home defence for a try. The failed conversion brought the final whistle.

A five-star show from McKenzie

Rugeley Rangers 1

Barnt Green Spartak 1
 IMPROVING Rugeley were unlucky not to win.

Barnt Green took the lead against the run of play early in the second half.

Rugeley piled on the pressure and equalised through the impressive Jack Turner.

Rugeley Rangers U9 6

Beacon Stars U9 1

Rugeley won comfortably after leading 4-0 at the interval in this League Cup first round tie.

Declan Hopwood opened the scoring, Alfie Gladwin netted twice and Charlie Rimmer got the fourth.

Beacon got one back but Liam O'Neill scored before Hopwood got his second.

Rugeley Rangers Lions U9 5

Church Farm U9 3

Billy McKenzie put in a five-star performance to score all Rugeley's goals.

Battling performance just short of victory

BATTLING Rugeley came up just short in this physical Junior Vase clash in the Peak District.

They were 24-0 adrift but fought back to get within striking distance – only for the home side to go clear once more and clinch the tie.

Rugeley began brightly, but the home side snapped into life after ten minutes and showed some impressive handling to score a converted try under the posts.

The visitors were doing well up front, but again Tupton's backs looked lively and the home side extended their lead to 10 points with a penalty.

At this point Rugeley seemed to lose some of their enthusiasm and a little dissent from within the visiting ranks gave the home side the opportunity to take control.

Superb ball handling saw Tupton's scrum-half cross beneath the posts to make their advantage 17-0.

A nightmare restart saw the same player break through what was becoming a shambolic defence to score under the posts again for a 24-0 lead after just 22 minutes.

Convert

Tupton seemed to think the game was there for the taking, but six minutes later Rugeley hit back.

From a ruck right on the try line, young flanker Morrison touched down for Grocott to convert.

It got better for Rugeley as good interpassing between Wilkes and Richer made space for Grocott to score a try and cut the deficit to 10 points.

However, a third try for Tupton's scrum-half made the half-time score 29-14 in their favour.

Tupton soon scored again to make it 36-14, but

Tupton 43 Rugeley 35

Rugeley started to pull together and look quite impressive.

Good pressure and fine passing saw the visitors' captain Wilkescroft combine with Grocott to set up an opportunity which Homer grasped, cutting the gap to 15 points.

Rugeley were now taking control of the game, and with only 10 minutes to play Homer scored a try under the posts which was converted by Grocott.

But with time running out, Tupton pulled together with that impressive ball handling and yet another try from their scrum-half made the score 43-28.

Again Rugeley responded, substitutes Reed and Castle taking the game to Tupton and hooker Reed made one final dash for the try line to score again.

Grocott duly converted but Tupton still had the victory.

Rugeley coach Richard Simmons said his team were outstanding.

"I was really impressed with our team's support play and great open running rugby, in particular Reed, Homer and Wilkes," he added.

Rugeley 13 Eccleshall 3
 Rugeley's second team won a close encounter over Eccleshall.

The game was locked at three points apiece with both teams' defences having the upper hand.

But an inspired substitution brought Alan Plumb onto the field and he made a critical difference.

The flanker broke free with 10 minutes to go.

He was held up short of the line, but managed to feed David Bagnall who scored what was the winning try.

It was converted and Jordan Wood then kicked a penalty to seal the victory for Rugeley.

Rugeley's under-13s had their first match of the season, suffering a 60-5 defeat to Burton.

The under-13s train every Thursday at 6pm at St Augustines field.

New players are welcome to join the fun.

Four wins on the trot as Hayes get goals

Heath Hayes 4 Colehill Town 0
HAYES made it four wins on the trot with this convincing Midland Alliance victory over Colehill Town.

Tom Baggott started his first league game of the season at the heart of the defence, Stuart Simpson made his debut in midfield and Adam Robinson returned at left back.

Both sides struggled early on with attempts on goal restricted to long range efforts before the home side started to get a grip.

After sustained pressure they got their deserved breakthrough on 32 minutes as Tom Green converted Lee Smiths neat lay-off.

Two minutes later they doubled the lead with a well-executed finish from Chris Deakin.

Danny Carter had the best effort for the visitors with a twenty yard effort going narrowly wide but the half ended with the home side well on top.

Hayes got a third on 55 minutes with a typical Deakin goal.

Picking the ball up on the left, he went on a mazy 35 yard run before planting the ball into the corner of the net beyond the despairing dive of keeper Paul Hathaway.

With 15 minutes left Hayes brought on new signing Keiron Northwood for an immediate impact.

After a run down the right his pinpoint cross allowed Dave Waple to powerfully head home the fourth.

Arber and Wilding on treble trail

Shenstone Ladies 7
Stafford Ladies 0

AFTER an even start Shenstone slowly made their mark on the game and gave a fine all-round performance.

First-half goals came from two bullet headers by Jade Arber, connecting with pinpoint corners from Loren Evans, with a third strike by Jodie Kinsey.

Shenstone pressed hard in the second half and Sophie Wilding bagged a 15-minute hat-trick.

Shenstone were playing some good passing football and with 10 minutes to go, Arber completed her own hat-trick with a well-placed shot from just inside the box.

No let-up for anglers as fish feed hard

Angling

anglers put their gear away at this time of the season and miss some of the best fishing of the year.

It's just a case of targeting different species that will provide some sport once those first frosts arrive - roach, chub, pike and grayling are among them.

Just a little investment in the correct clothing and footwear to stay warm and dry and you're away.

We are currently running our October pike competition. This is open to anyone who submits a picture and brief details about their pike capture to our Facebook or email address.

It's not about the heaviest, it could be your first ever pike capture or one caught in unusual circumstances.

It must be caught this October and have been returned to the water it came from - alive.

We are awarding a £50 gift voucher to the winner, so start submitting your photos.

Anyone who is interested in taking up fly fishing would benefit from either a half or full-day course we are organising with Hardy Greys academy instructor Andy Taylor.

The sessions include casting tuition, fishing and use of tackle. Please contact us for more details.

Turner fires his Dragons into the hat

Burntwood Dragons U10 3
Elford Boys Dynamos U10 2 (aet)
DRAGONS took an odd-goal-in-five win in this shield preliminary match.

Alfie Allan-Smith made the breakthrough but Elford forced extra-time. Jack Taylor netted, but Elford levelled again only for Charlie Turner to head home the winner.

Huntington Harriers U13 1
Burntwood Dragons Reds U13 4
Reds raced into a 3-0 half-time lead in the cup with goals from Jamie Welsh (2) and Jordan Corrigan before Welsh completed his treble.

St Joseph's Hednesford U11 2
St Joseph and St Theresa U11 1 (aet)
Jacob Lloyd and Leighton D'Onofrio sent St Joseph's through after extra-time in this closely contested quarter-final against St Joseph and St Theresa's.

Hednesford Town U10 4 Holy Name Celts U10 2 (aet)
A LATE goal saved Hednesford in this cup match and they secured the win in extra time.

The first half was goalless, but Hednesford had early opportunities in the second period before breaking through.

Dylan Stringer, Kai Reeve and Ryan Wood found Sam Paddock who fired home from outside the box.

Holy Name hit back to level and then took the lead, but Hednesford's late equaliser saved the day.

Paddock finished with a hat-trick while Reeve netted his third goal in two games.
Hednesford Town U10 0
Lane Head U10 1
Hednesford gave a below-par performance in defeat. Jamie Hitchborne battled away on the right but when Hednesford did create chances they failed to capitalise or found the Chargers' keeper in top form.

Hednesford Town U10 2
Bustleholme Tigers U10 3
A late goal condemned Hednesford to defeat after they had fought back from two down to equalise.

Hednesford struck when Jack Hems finished a move also involving Charlie Withington and Jamie Hitchborne.

Jack Robinson's free-kick levelled, but Bustleholme had the final word.

Stafford Town U13 Girls 0
Hednesford United U13 Girls 4
Hednesford dominated the match from the first whistle and scored after just 15 seconds.

Molly Bruton crossed from the left for Lois Brindley to fire home.

Brindley then got her second, beating several players and lobbing the keeper. Bruton saw a penalty well saved, but another spot-kick was converted by Samantha Fawdon.

Junior football

The final goal came when Fawdon hit a post and Kate Clinton tucked away the rebound.

Hednesford are looking for a defender; call 07919 105630 for more details.

Hawkins Sports U15 5
FC Premier U13 2

Hawkins came out on top in a feisty game, going ahead with two well-taken goals by Ryan Davies and a third from Will Morris after Premier opened the scoring.

Jack Carter extended the lead and although Premier got one back, Charlie Knobs' free-kick rounded off the scoring.

Church Farm U11 20
Lea Hall U11 0
The goals flowed in the first round of the Lichfield District Cup as Church Farm hit 20.

Goals from Smith, Edge, Round, Gardner and Haddrell put Farm through to the second round.

Ladies fail to tame the Shrews and fall to defeat

Cannock Ladies hockey first team face the camera with the new season's campaign now well under way

Shrewsbury 3 Cannock 0
CANNOCK Ladies hockey seconds suffered their first defeat of the season in this Midlands Region League Division Two match.

They started strongly, winning a number of short corners, but came up against a resolute home defence.

Shrewsbury started to pass the ball around and looked the better side with two goals coming before half time. In the second half, Cannock settled back into their game with some good runs from Sarah Drayton-Chana creating a number of chances, but the visitors found the keeper in good form before Shrewsbury scored a third.

On Saturday, Cannock travel to Edgbaston.

Cannock 0 Stafford 1
The thirds had hoped to improve on last week's bad result against Lichfield, but lost again. Throughout the first half Cannock looked positive, attacking on many occasions and winning a few short corners which they couldn't convert. The defence for Stafford was brilliant and denied all outfield attempts on goal.

At half-time it was still 0-0 and Cannock seemed to have the upper hand, still continuing to press forward. But 10 minutes from time, Stafford broke to score the only goal.

Cannock travel to Bloxwich on Saturday.

Scholars now six without a victory

Loughborough Dynamo 3 Chasetown 0

CHASETOWN slumped to their second three-goal margin defeat of the league season, with a below-par performance at Loughborough, writes Paul Mullins.

The warning signs were there early on in Tuesday's Evo-Stik Division One South match with the pacy Shawn Richards causing mayhem down the Chasetown left.

After Matt Jackson fouled Richards on 11 minutes, the free-kick was floated into the box and an unmarked Matt Langham gave Ryan Price no chance from close range.

Chasetown's best – and arguably only clear-cut chance on the night – came just before the half-hour mark. Paul Sullivan out-muscled his defender to get a goalscoring opportunity and his right-foot shot was beaten away by Kahlil Mann-Kler.

On 30 minutes, Loughborough doubled their lead. Richards whipped in a pass to the near post and Langham turned in his second goal of the evening.

Loughborough put the icing on the cake in the final minute when Will Grogott picked his spot to drive the ball beyond Price.

Chasetown are without a win now in six games.

Academy is set to open

PDC star Steve Brown will open the eighth of his darts academies in Cannock, with an open day next week.

'The Bomber' and Rugeley's Mark Hylton will put on an exhibition at Rileys Sports Bar, High Green, on Wednesday.

Brown, of Bristol, reached the last 16 of the World Matchplay and World Grand Prix in 2010.

'Mile High' Hylton – a former airline cabin crew manager – was in the last 16 of the world championship and the quarter-finals of the UK Open in 2011.

Aspiring darters can sign up to Brown's academy, where they will be trained on eight-week basis with a grading after each session.

Level of aptitude will be shown by the colour of shirts awarded, from white to black – as in martial arts belts. For information on the day and how to join call Rileys on 01543 504 220.

Tennis players double up for club's first junior matchplay tournament

NINETEEN pairs of players from three different clubs enjoyed the first junior tennis matchplay event at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre.

The players were split into groups named after three famous tennis players. Group Nadal was a tightly-fought contest with Thomas Jenner and Cole Hepworth from Etching Hill TC taking the win by one point from Cheslyn Hay's Tommy Dace and Alfie Allan-Smith.

In group Federer all pairs won at least one match with the Cheslyn Hay combination of Sam Clarie and Michael Galleer finishing first ahead of club-mates Lewis Gray and Dan Woodhouse.

In Group Murray, Wombourne Tennis Club took first and second place with Will Goudie and Jimmy Poutney champions. Free junior coaching continues on a Monday evening from 5.30-6.30pm for children aged six to 11 and 6.30-8pm for 11-16-year-olds.

Lane off but Hayes still make progress

Heath Hayes 2 Rochester 0

HEATH HAYES deservedly progressed in this Staffordshire Senior Cup tie against Rochester.

The home side showed a grit and determination so lacking in early season games to record their fifth straight win – and third clean sheet – despite having keeper Adam Lane sent off with 20 minutes still to play.

The Romans looked sharp early on with their neat build-up play but never really threatened, while at the other end Chris Deakin shot wide and keeper Richard Froggatt then produced two brilliant saves to deny Tom Green before turning another Deakin effort round the post.

Blocked

Hayes got the goal they deserved on 33 minutes. Lee Smith was fouled in the box by Darren Bullock and took the penalty himself, sending Froggatt the wrong way.

The visitors had their best spell at the beginning of the second half, but saw shots blocked by Tom Baggott and Adam Robinson.

On 70 minutes Hayes had keeper Adam Lane sent off for handling outside the area and denying Sterling a goalscoring opportunity. Deakin originally donned the keeper's jersey but was soon replaced by substitute Ben Maddox who went on to perform competently. The Romans threw everything at the home goal but never really threatened.

Smith settled the game with eight minutes left, picking up the ball on the halfway line and beating two opponents before firing past Froggatt from 25 yards.

PITMEN DENIED BY SMITH'S LEVELLER

Nantwich 1 Hednesford Town 1

HEDNESFORD were denied all three Evo-Stik Northern Premier League points at the Weaver Stadium by a 79th-minute equaliser from Christian Smith.

The Pitmen went ahead after 28 minutes on Tuesday when an Elliott Durrell free-kick was fired into a crowded goalmouth and evaded everyone to find the bottom corner.

Nantwich came back with Sean Cooke hitting the angle and Josh Lane seeing a header scrambled off the line.

On 75 minutes, Durrell skipped past Jon Brain in the Nantwich goal but could only slice his shot into the net via a deflection off Rey who was offside.

Four minutes later, lax defending from the Pitmen at a corner allowed Smith to nod the ball into the net.

Former Nantwich hero Michael Lennon saw his shot brilliantly saved at point blank range then Nantwich saw Kyle Wilson squeeze his shot past Dan Crane only for John Disney to clear off the line.

Hednesford Town 1 Ashford United 2

Hednesford were left to rue first-half defensive mistakes after gifting Ashton United a two-goal lead.

Hednesford Town

Despite a huge effort by the Pitmen to recover the deficit, the away side held on for the three points in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division clash on Saturday.

Sam Barnes' clearance fell to Aaron Burns, who took a touch and curled a superb left-footed shot into the top corner on 27 minutes to give Ashton the lead.

Matty Kosylo skipped past right-back John Disney before crossing for Burns to double the away side's advantage on 40 minutes.

Disney atoned for his earlier lapse to score a very emotional goal.

A minute's silence had been held for Disney's father Eddie, who died suddenly in midweek, and for Lou Williams, a loyal fan who also died recently.

Brad pierces the defence

Heath Hayes U14 7 Warren Rovers U14 1

BRAD PEARSE notched a hat-trick while Zak Kosewesi and Harry Ward bagged two goals apiece. Goalkeeper Callum Hope was Hayes' man of the match.

Heath Hayes U15 2 Lichfield City U15 2

Ben Blakeley's two cracking goals gave Heath Hayes a well-earned share of the spoils in a decent Lichfield League Division One clash. The hosts were twice behind, but Blakeley's goals – a long-ranger and a volley – took Hayes' unbeaten run to three games.

Mascot Pete's on the ball for non-league day

Pupils from St Peter's Primary School line up for the penalty shoot-out at Hednesford Town's Keys Park ground

HEDNESFORD Town joined teams from across the country in celebrating Non-League Day on Saturday.

A crowd of almost 500 watched the fun, although Hednesford lost 2-1 to Ashford United.

Cannock-based dance troupe Epic Dance performed before the game with mascot Pitman Pete making an appearance.

St Peter's Primary School year four football team took part in a penalty shoot-out on the pitch at half-time, cheered on by supporters in the main stand, while Pitman Pete also faced penalties from the young footballers.

Supporters Association joint-chairman Scott Smith said the day was a success and will hopefully lead to more families and younger fans joining the ranks of Pitmen supporters.

"The day went really well and we would like to thank the two groups of children involved, but also the volunteers from the SA who formed a welcoming committee outside the stadium and the people who helped organise the day."

"Despite the result, we hope some of the children who attended might catch the non-league football bug and return regularly to Keys Park in the future," he said.
